A Little Daughter

Of a Church of England minister, cured of a distressing rash, by Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Mr. Richard Dennis, the well-known Druggist, 207 McGill St., Montreal, P. Q., says: "I have sold Ayer's Family Medicines for 30 years, and have heard nothing but good said of them. I know of many"

Wonderful Cures

performed by Ayer's Sarsaparilla, one in particular being that of a little daughter of a Church of England minister. The child was literally covered from head to foot with a red and exceedingly troublesome rash, from which she had suffered for two or three years, in spite of the best medical treatment available. Her father was in great distress about the case, and, at my recommendation, at last began to administer Ayer's Sarsaparilla, two bottles of which effected a complete cure, much to her relief and her father's delight. I am sure, were he here to-day, he would testify in the strongest terms as to the merits of

NOT MELANCHOLY DAYS.

These ain't the "melancholy days," no matter what they say! There's been more fun in all the ways than there's been there for many a day! The cracks of the teamster's whip—the whoutin' of a boy As the snowflakes come a tumblin' down—there's joy for you big joy!

These ain't the "melancholy days,"—there's lots of fun in sight! The cool and bracin' mornin's, an' the big coal fires at night! The bounds upon the rabbit's trail—the wild duck on the wing—The maiden with the red lips, an' the lover with the ring!

These ain't the "melancholy days"—not much! they're full o' life, An' you're thankful for your sweetheart, an' you praise God for your wife! An' then, on general principles—in view of what He's givin'— You shout a hal'elujah for the privilege o' livin'!

FOR A NOBLE CAUSE.

The Catholic Efforts of the Ladies of the City Catholic Parishes Working For a Just Object.

The Catholics of Winnipeg have been for some time actively engaged in the preliminary work of the promotion of a bazaar. The object of the bazaar is to raise funds for the support of the Catholic separate schools, which a generous local government has left bare. For quite a long time the ladies of St. Mary's and Immaculate Conception parishes have been collecting, sewing, canvassing etc., and thanks to their efforts, and the efforts of the Bazaar Committee, the affair promises to be a splendid success. The opening day will be Monday next at noon at the old Trinity hall, and on the first two days there will be no charge for admission, a small charge only being made after six o'clock on the last four days. We have been privileged to view the many beautiful articles at St. Mary's Presbytery, among which are the Cross and Passion in the handiwork of the Rev. Father F. X. this year, gentleman has also contributed a splendid motto of Our Lady of Lourdes, and an emblem of the Blessed Trinity. An oil painting of the Victoria Regia water lily, painted by a local lady artist, is a noticeable feature, and four banners, contributed by different lady friends lend a very pleasing air to the walls of the Presbytery. A plush velvet mantle piece, contributed by the pupils of St. Mary's Academy, quilts, cushions, etc., from the convent in Notre Dame Street, and about 200 articles from the children of St. Mary's and Holy Angels Academies are the only things we can find space to mention. Suffice to say that the whole presentation is a scene of great brilliance. Contributions have arrived from all points. The clever Jap has been put under contribution, the Indian has shown his skill, the religious houses from Montreal to Vancouver have sent in their quota to swell the magnificence. There will be no formal opening ceremony on Monday, the sale will commence directly the doors are opened. Varied entertainments will be given every evening. On Tuesday evening a dramatic performance will be given by members of the church, and on Wednesday Father Drummond, S. J., will deliver a lecture. An orchestral band will be the attraction on Thursday, and some of our leading musicians are expected to be present. The concert of Friday evening will be something to remember, as vocalists of the highest repute will delight the audiences. Saturday, it is to be hoped, will see the closing of the most successful bazaar ever held in Winnipeg, and the handing over to the schools of a handsome sum. Great interest is being taken in the voting contest for a lady's gold watch. The candidates are two young lady pupils—one from St. Mary's Academy and the other from Holy Angels. Both sides are working hard. Another contest is raging—raging is the correct term here, for the lady canvassers are in a white heat of enthusiasm—as to who is the most popular man for the governorship of Manitoba, and whatever is the result of the vote there is no doubt whatever but that a substantial sum will be realized by it. Old Trinity Hall will be alive with fair women and, let us hope, brave men—who will fearlessly run the gauntlets of the stall-holders, and purchase everything they are asked to. The bazaar is an assured spectacular success already, nothing remains but to make it a financial success also. No one will regret a visit to our Winnipeg "World's Fair," and everyone is welcome.

THE EMBALMING OF OUR LORD.

Among the wool carvings at the Chicago Fair one of them is said to be heart piercing in the realistic manner in which the subject is presented. The manufacturers having caught the happy knack of judiciously coloring the faces and the result is beautiful. It is the life-size group of the embalming of Our Lord, valued at $1,000. It contains four figures. The moment immediately preceding the embalming of Our Lord is the one the sculptor has selected. Our Lady is seated, and on her lap she holds the dead body of Jesus. Nicodemus is at her right and St. John at her left. Our Lord's body is wonderfully well colored. His parted lid lips, His glossy, half-closed eyes the purple scars on head and hands and feet are said to be painfully true. The figure of Our Lady is beautiful. It has the look you would expect to find on the face of such a mother holding in her arms the cold, dead form of such a son. A tear glistens on her face. You can see it. You stand fascinated and pained. Grief rises to your throat. You could weep for Our Lady and you turn away angry with yourself.

REGINA NOTES.

Whilst Winnipeg and other cities in the effete East were revelling in sleigh rides, skating, and snowballing, Regina is enjoying the luxury of a real Indian summer, and scarcely enough snow or rain has fallen during several weeks to lay the dust.

A most lamentable occurrence of last week was the death of a Russian labourer, named Vincent Heidman, which has caused the indictment of a young man named McDonald. Heidman, who has been long and favourably known in the town, was engaged at the Court House building mixing mortar, and was covering the same in the evening against the frost, when McDonald, who was working for the Western Milling Company, arrived with instructions to get some of the mortar. An altercation occurred between the two as to what part of the mortar bed was to be disturbed, which was ended by McDonald striking Heidman over the head with his shovel, when the latter fell, and died three hours later. A post-mortem revealed that the unfortunate man's skull was badly shattered, and the coroner's jury returned a verdict in accordance with above. Heidman leaves a widow and several young children in poor circumstances, and McDonald's widowed mother is not less to be pitied. Heidman was buried on Sunday, Father Caron conducting the services.

Ministers Foster and Angers have been here, and have spoken and listened and questioned and advised, and generally made themselves agreeable, as becomes Ministers of the Crown and servants of the people, but despite their explanations and protestations the price of coal and coal oil still keeps up, and that of wheat keeps down.

Our church choir continues to improve in the quality and number of its members as well as its work, the addition of Miss Ahern of Toronto adding greatly to its efficiency.
