Many men base a claim to not knowing what they ought not to know on the basis of not knowing anything.

It is the dog in the man, and the cat quality in woman, that makes them snarl when food is not to their tastes.

Wit makes its own welcome, and levels all distinction. No dignity, no learning, no force of character, can make any stand against good wit. It is like ice, on which no beauty of form, no majesty of carriage, can plead any immunity; they must walk gingerly, according to the laws of ice, or down they must go, dignity and all.—Emerson.

Dear Sirs,—

"It is with great pleasure that I bear testimony to the efficacy of your Acetocura.
Owing to a chill I was suffering great pain from a severe attack of toothache, and my gums were also very painful and much inflamed. Knowing from previous experience the effects produced from Acetocura, I was assured that the nerves, causing the trouble, could be relieved and soothed. The acid was first applied, as directed in your pamphlet, at the back of the head, until a smarting flush was produced, and then over the temporal muscle immediately behind the ear, with the Acid diluted. After the application there was little pain, and this mainly owing to the gums being in such an inflamed condition. I then fell into a refreshing sleep which lasted until morning and awoke to find the pain gone and the inflammation in the gums much reduced.

"My wife, who suffers from severe headaches, has also derived much benefit by applying the Acid to the top and back of the head, and using the spray producer, which has a refreshing effect on the forehead."

Yours truly, ALEX. COWAN.
