

Here is the partially-completed first helicopter to be built in Canada with its pilot and designers. Because of the nature of the country and other factors, Canada is considered to be a good place to mass produce these machines.

---

Reproduction of this booklet in whole or in part is welcomed. Additional information on Canadian aviation or other Canadian subjects may be obtained through the Information Division, Department of External Affairs, Ottawa, Canada, or through the nearest Canadian mission abroad. Copies of photographs or maps used in this booklet are also obtainable.

Thanks are due to the many persons and organizations who have allowed the use of their photographs in this booklet. These include:

The National Film Board
Royal Canadian Air Force,
Royal Canadian Navy

Trans-Canada Air Lines
Canadian Pacific Air Lines
Bill and Jean Newton of Ottawa

---

PRODUCED BY THE DEPARTMENT OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS
- OTTAWA CANADA -
MAY, 1948