CHAPTER II. International Character, Uniform, Insignia, and Privileges and Immunities

6. International Character. The United Nations Force in Cyprus is a subsidiary organ of the United Nations established pursuant to the resolution of the Security Council of 4 March 1964 (S/5575) and consists of the Commander and all personnel placed under his command by Member States. The members of the Force, although remaining in their national service, are, during the period of their assignment to the Force, international personnel under the authority of the United Nations and subject to the instructions of the Commander, through the chain of command. The functions of the Force are exclusively international and members of the Force shall discharge these functions and regulate their conduct with the interest of the United Nations only in view.

7. Flag. The Force is authorized to fly the United Nations flag in accordance with the United Nations Flag Code and Regulations. The Force shall display the United Nations flag and emblem on its Headquarters and on its posts, vehicles and otherwise as decided by the Commander. Other flags or pennants may be displayed only in exceptional cases and in accordance with conditions prescribed by the Commander.

8. Uniform and Insignia. Members of the Force shall wear their national uniform in accordance with their national uniform regulations and with such identifying United Nations insignia as the Commander, in consultation with the Secretary-General, shall prescribe. Civilian dress may be worn at such times and in accordance with such conditions as may be authorized by the Commander.

9. Markings. All means of transportation of the Force, including vehicles, vessels and aircraft, and all other equipment when specifically designated by the Commander, shall bear a distinctive United Nations mark and United Nations licence number.

10. Privileges and Immunities. The Force, as a subsidiary organ of the United Nations, enjoys the status, privileges and immunities of the Organization provided in Article 105 of the Charter of the United Nations, the Convention on the Privileges and Immunities of the United Nations and the Agreement between the United Nations and the Republic of Cyprus signed on 31 March 1964. The entry without duty or restrictions of equipment and supplies of the Force, and of personal effects required by members of the Force by reason of their
