

Newfoundland Quilts

Ruth Matthews makes beautiful quilts at home in St. John's, Newfoundland. Each is custom-made and takes a long time, and she is booked two years ahead.

Her "Newfoundland Summer" (below) won the Premier's Award of Excellence this year, which surprised no one, and she is now putting together a quilt to celebrate the 400th anniversary of Sir Humphrey Gilbert's arrival in Newfoundland. Prices, which are remarkably low, depend on the time required. Quilt lovers with high standards and a good deal of patience may write Mrs. Matthews at 163 Canada Drive, St. John's, Newfoundland A1E 2N2.

