under the supervision of the said authorities up to such time as they are re-exported or otherwise disposed of in accordance with Customs regulations.

ARTICLE XIV

(Tariffs)

1. The tariffs on any agreed service shall be established at reasonable levels, due regard being paid to all relevant factors including cost of operation, reasonable profit, characteristics of service (such as standards of speed and accomodation) and, where it is deemed suitable, the tariffs of other airlines for any part of the specified route. These tariffs shall be fixed in accordance with the following provisions of this Article.

2. The tariffs referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article shall, if possible, be agreed upon between the designated airlines of the Contracting Parties; such agreement shall be reached, whenever possible, through an appropriate international tariff coordination mechanism. Unless otherwise determined in the application of paragraph 4 of this article, each designated airline shall be responsible only to its aeronautical authorities for the justification and reasonableness of the tariffs.

3. The tariffs referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article shall be submitted to the aeronautical authorities of the
