

Mr. Crosbie said, "Canada's participation in the OECD Ministerial meeting and the Quadrilateral Trade Ministers meeting ensures that Canada is heard on important international economic and trade issues. The upcoming meetings in Brussels and Madrid show the depth and importance of our relationship with the European Community. Major changes are taking place in the European Community which will create opportunities for expanding our trade and investment relations with that vital market."

Contact: Suzanne Szukits or André Leblanc
Media Relations Office
Department of External Affairs
(613) 995-1874