

second reading, in order to determine whether there is any defect with respect to the practices and usages of the House.

Therefore, in order to save the time of the House, taking into consideration that perhaps more than two hours would be required to introduce each of those measures separately, it is suggested that, by unanimous consent, all the bills listed for introduction on today's Order Paper be deemed to have been introduced, given first reading, ordered to be printed and allowed to stand for a second reading at the next sitting of the House, subject of course to a subsequent examination as to the regularity of each bill.

Accordingly, by unanimous consent, the following bills were deemed, by leave of the House, to have been introduced, read the first time and ordered to be printed and ordered for a second reading at the next sitting of the House:
