

severely penalized for having done so, and I will demand of the minister a complete explanation for this injustice.

I state most emphatically that the whole question of severance pay and vacation pay should be referred to the Standing Committee on Labour, Manpower and Immigration for reconsideration of this most despicable section of the new Unemployment Insurance Act.

Mr. Speaker: Order, please. I regret that I must interrupt the hon. member. It being 9.30 o'clock p.m., it is my duty, pursuant to special order made Wednesday, February 23 last, to interrupt these proceedings—more particularly, the hon. member—and put every question necessary to dispose of the amendment now before the House.

The question is on the amendment of the hon. member for Hamilton West (Mr. Alexander). All those in favour of the amendment will please say yea.

Some hon. Members: Yea.

Mr. Speaker: All those opposed will please say nay.

Some hon. Members: Nay.

Mr. Speaker: In my opinion, the nays have it.

And more than five members having risen:

Mr. Speaker: Call in the members.

The House divided on the amendment (Mr. Alexander) which was negatived on the following division:
