on board his

Britannic Majesty's Transport Samuel and Sarah, on the 11th day of July 1812, viz. Brigadier General William Hull, Colonel Duncan McArthur, James Fundly, and Lewis Cass; Lieutenant Colonels James Miller, John R. Fenwick, Winfield Scott, and John Christie; Major James Taylor; Captain Nathan Heald, John Whistler, Henry B. Brevoort, Josiah Snelling, Robert Lucas, Abraham F. Hull, Peter Ogilvie, William King, Joel Cook, and Return B. Brown; First Lieutenant Charles Larrabe; Second Lieutenants James Dalliba and Daniel Hugunin: And each and all of the aforesaid officers are hereby declared exchanged, and as free to act against the united Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and the dependencies thereof, as if they had never been captured."

" By order of the Secretary of War."

" T. H. Cushing, Adjutant Genl."

His Excellency considers himself called upon in the most public manner, to protest against the pretended release of the above named Officers from their Parole of Honor, given under their hands while Prisoners of War. His Excellency having expressly refused to accede to the exchange of the officers above named, as proposed to him by Major General Dearborn in his Letter of the 26th Dec. and 2d. Jan. last under the authority of the American Government, upon the identical terms contained in the Order of the 18th of January before referred to, His Excellency feels himself compelled hereby to declare, that he still considers those officers as
