

BURIED TREASURE.

SUPPOSED PLUNDER OF THE PIRATES TO BE RECOVERED BY MODERN SCIENCE.

AN AUTHENTIC ACCOUNT OF EFFORTS MADE TO REGAIN HIDDEN AND FABULOUS RICHES.

Much fiction has been written concerning great sums of money and vast quantities of jewels buried by pirates some 200 years ago somewhere along the Atlantic coast. Our story has to do only with facts, as stated by the men now living and who had a hand in them, or as told to them by men now dead. It can be proven:

1. That a shaft about 13 feet in diameter and 100 feet deep was sunk on Oak Island in Mahone bay, Nova Scotia, before the memory of any now living.
2. That this shaft was connected by an underground tunnel with the open ocean, about 365 feet distant.
3. That at the bottom of this shaft were placed large wooden boxes in which were precious metals and jewels.
4. That many attempts have been made, without success, to obtain this treasure.
5. That it is reasonably certain the treasure is large, because so great a trouble would never have been taken to conceal any small sum.
6. That it is now entirely feasible to thoroughly explore this shaft and recover the treasure still located therein.

THE STORY IN DETAIL.

Oak Island is situated near the head of Mahone Bay, Nova Scotia. A narrow channel separates it from the main land, at
