

article, shall be charged to the Regiment or Detachment in charge of the same, as for damage done by the wantonness of the Troops.

NINTH.—Non-Commissioned Officers or Soldiers shall not be absent from the Barracks after sun set, without Tickets from the Commanding Officer, and no Fires or Lights shall be suffered in the Soldiers Rooms, or in the Galleries or Stables after Nine o'Clock at night, at which time an Officer shall visit them to see that this Order is strictly obeyed. And we do hereby direct and enjoin the Commanding Officers to use every precaution in their power to prevent accidents by Fire, and not to suffer that Candles be on any account carried about incautiously or into the Stables except in proper Lanthorns.

TENTH.—Wherever there is a Fire Engine attached to the Barracks, the Barrack-Master shall see that the same be properly taken care of, so as to be at all times fit for use, and shall observe such directions thereon, as you or the Master