

On our part, the ratification of the treaty ran thus. By the Honourable William Dummer, Esq. Lieut. governor and commander in chief of his Majesty's province of the Massachusetts-Bay in New-England.

Whereas Wenemovet, the chief sachem of Penobscot, with others his chiefs and the rest of said tribe, convened at Casco bay the 5th day of August, 1726, having solemnly and publicly ratified the treaty of submission, made at Boston the 15th day of December last, and delivered the same to me, which I have according accepted.

I do hereby ratify and confirm all the articles in the within mentioned instrument.

Given under my hand and seal at arms, at Falmouth, in Casco bay, the sixth day of August, in the thirteenth year of the reign of our sovereign lord King George, by the grace of God of Great Britain, &c. annoq. dom. 1726.

WILLIAM DUMMER.

By the command of his honour

the Lieut. governor,

John Wainwright,

Clerk of the Council.

After the ratification was over, the Lieut. governor among other things, desired them to say, what measures they propos'd to take, whereby the inhabitants on our frontiers may be made easy and safe, notwithstanding the Norridwocks, &c. who did not personally appear to ratify the articles of the present treaty?

They answered, that they would have the inhabitants of the frontiers to be very careful, and that as soon as they return'd home it should be their first care to send to all the tribes, and let them know that there is a peace made.

The Lieut. governor ask'd them, will you lay your commands
