Depository.

The sales during the last twelve months have amounted to £38 15s. 2d. Through the medium of the Depository not only many copies of the Holy Bible, and the Book of Common Prayer have been distributed throughout the Diocese, but also many publications of a devotional and instructive nature, the use and study of which are calculated, under the divine blessing, to increase the knowledge of "the Faith once delivered to the Saints."

Whenever applications for aid towards promoting education have been received, your Board has deemed it a duty to answer them by grants, as liberal as the funds of the Society enabled it to make, and it has only to express its regret that the inadequacy of those means have prevented it from making grants as liberal as the urgent character of the objects, would appear to demand.
