THE

O. C. COLLEGE QUESTION.

AN EXAMINATION,

IN WHAT IS BELIEVED TO BE INTELLIGIBLE LANGUAGE, OF

Three not very Intelligible Points:

- 1. How U. C. College came to be established in defiance of the Legislature.
- 2. How U. C. College has contrived to absorb more than one-half of the Endowment of the Provincial University.
- 3. Why U. C. College has been so long permitted to remain a charge on the Grammar School Endowment.

WITH FULL REFERENCES TO ORIGINAL DOCUMENTS.

Compiled by order of the Ontario Grammar School Masters' Association.

DUNDAS:

PRINTED BY JAS. SOMERVILLE, "TRUE BANNER" POWER PRESS. 1868.