

Members to be proposed, and previous Proposals to be considered.

Public Business connected with the principles, honour or prosperity of the Institution discussed.

Lecture repeated.

Dues collected.

Lodge closed with Prayer.

RITUAL OF INTRODUCTION.

The preparation of the Candidate is to take place in the Ante-Room, as follows:—He is to be stripped of his coat and vest, and his left arm barred to the shoulder, and a Blue Ribband tied round that elbow. All being ready, the Candidate shall be led to the Lodge Room door, when a sudden alarm shall be made by the Spou-sers, and they shall knock.

Master.—What alarm is there; what strangers are at our gates?

Tylers—

(Opening the door and communicating with those without,) then asks:

—What strangers are there?

Sponsors—Travellers from the East.

Tylers—

Repeats this announcement to the Master.