

$100 for every offence, and in default of payment the offender is liable to imprisonment for six months (s. 97).

CORRUPT PRACTICES.

PERSONATION.

74. A person shall for all purposes, &c., be deemed guilty of personation who at an election, &c., applies for a ballot paper in the name of some other person, whether such name be that of a person living or dead, or of a fictitious person, or who having voted once at any such election applies at the same election for a ballot paper in his own name.

The offence of personation or of aiding, abetting, counselling, or procuring the commission of this offence is punishable by a fine not exceeding $200, and by imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months.

It is a misdemeanor for a candidate to be guilty of this offence. (Sec. 97.)
(Electors whose names may be on the list of voters for the City and County election in more than one polling district ought clearly to understand that they can only vote once for the candidates for the City and County, and that any attempt to vote more than once would render them liable to fine and imprisonment, and that the Returning Officers' books will contain the evidence on which they may be convicted.)

Of course they may vote for a City candidate either before or after voting for the City and County candidates.)

And any person so offending shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall also be liable to forfeit the sum of two hundred dollars, to any person who shall sue for the same, with full costs of suit: Provided always, that the actual personal expenses of any candidate, his expenses for actual professional services performed, and bona fide payments for the fair cost of printing and advertising, shall be held to be expenses lawfully incurred, and the payment thereof shall not be a contravention of this Act.
