 grand jury for using Anheuser-Busch Budweiser labels, taking them from empty bottles and putting them on bottles containing beer brewed by other brewers and selling same as Budweiser, was convicted and fined $100 in Judge Moore's court.

The case was vigorously prosecuted by Campbell Cummings and is the first of several similar proceedings in which he will appear for the brewery. The case was begun Monday and continued Tuesday until the jury went out at 3.30 p. m. Within an hour and a half a verdict of guilty was returned against Goldgraber, but Henry stelman, who was a co-defendant, was discharged.

The coming of England's champion band, "The Besses o' th' Barn," will in all probability cause much discussion next week. The Black Dike Band left many thousands of admirers behind them in Toronto, who think there can be no better band, but the fact remains that in the last competition for the "Dikers." This will draw many people to Hanlan's Point, curiform the "Dikers." The latest bid for popularity in the burlesque line is "The Merry Maidens" Company. They are billed to appear at the Star next week. There are two burlesques, "The Heir to the Hoopla," a satire on the New York comedy success, "The Heir to the Hoorah," and a little gun-play entitled "A Necktie Party," both arranged and staged by the popular comedian Sam Rice.
