MISSING MR. CLARK.
He is said to have left secretly to take a vacation in the States.

A clue to the whereabouts of William T. Clark, who disappeared mysteriously ten days ago, was received at the office of the Thomson Paper Company, Johnston-street, yesterday, when a man came in and said that Clark had gone to the United States to take up a position, and that he was going to join him.

The clerk in the office did not know the name the caller, but thought there was some ground for his statement, as a week ago last Tuesday Clark had said that he was expecting a pass from a firm in Chicago to join him.

September wheat puts today at Chicago 60 1/2c, calls 70c, September wheat puts, good next week, 61c, calls 74c.

July corn puts at Chicago today 21 3/4c, calls 22 1/4c. September corn puts, good next week, 21 1/2c, calls 22c.

On the Liverpool market spot maize was off 1/8 cent, and closed at 19 1/2c. In the heavy liquidation Chicago corn fell about 1/8c per bushel, and closed at low figures. On the London market, spot maize was off 1/8 cent and closed at 20 1/2c in Liverpool and 20 1/4c in London.

At Toronto there was nothing doing in grains to-day and wheat was lower.

On the Liverpool market spot maize was off 1/8 cent, and closed at 19 1/2c. In the heavy liquidation Chicago corn fell about 1/8c per bushel, and closed at low figures. On the London market, spot maize was off 1/8 cent and closed at 20 1/2c in Liverpool and 20 1/4c in London.

WHEAT'S STILL TUMBLING.

All Deliveries Receded Again Yesterday.

Usually Bullish Factors Have No Effect—Everybody Seems to Be Afraid of Incoming Crops—Butter Strong and Cheese Weak—Gossip.

Friday Evening, June 17.

Despite the remarkable succession of breaks which have recently occurred, wheat does not seem to have succumbed as yet. The market continues very weak despite the bullish factors, and a largely diminished receipts in the west, a large falling off in the Argentine shipments and a probable large decrease in the American visible supply for the week.

On the Paris market wheat declined 2 3/8c per bushel, the June and July derivatives declined 1/8c and 1/4c respectively, and the December option 2 3/8c.
