PUBLIC AMUSEMENTS.

Frank Hancock Matthews, an old Toron: boy, makes his first appearance in his native city since his leaving for New York some three years ago to continue his vocal studies. Mr. Matthews sings the baritone part in the Neapolitan trio in Wm. A. Brady's very successful musical comedy. "Foxy Grandpa," with Joseph Hart and Carrie DeMar at the Princess Theatre next week. Before leaving for New York Mr. Matthews was a prominent society and club man, being an active member of the Torotto Lacroesse Club, the Rosedale C.C., the St. Alban's Athletic Club, the Queen Clty Bicycle and Hockey Club, the Mendelsohan choir and the Jarvis-street Baptist Church choir, He was at one time soloist of the Bathurst-street Methodist Church choir, also St. Peters' Episcopal and was a cathedral choir boy for a number of years. Mr. Matthews was a pupil at the Toronto Conservatory of Music under Rechab Tandy, winning his scholarship two 'consecutive years (1899 and 1900). He was prominent on the concert platform thraout the provinces. While in New York he studied with Dr. Frank Dossert of Carnegie Hall, and has appeared as soloist at some of the high-class concerts and recitations, from ome three years ago to continue his vocal which he has some very fine press notices. He was soloist at the St. Ignatius Church, 40th-street, and the Yonkers Methodist Church, Yonkers, N.Y. His first appearance on the stage was with Francis Wilson in the "Tereador," during its season run at the Knickerbocker Theatre in New York. Mr. Matthews is only 24 years old and is one of the many Terontonians who are making for themselves a name in the theatrical profession.

There will be a number of excellent acts on the bill at Shea's next week, one of the principal of which will be Chas. Dickson & Co., in a sketch entitled, "A Pressing Matter." Mr. Dickson is one of the foremost comedians of the day and in this act he gets splendlid opportunity to show what he can do, He is assisted by a very clever young woman, Miss Pauline Billings, and by a youth who keeps everybody in hot water. Miss Ethel Levy, after an absence of three years from vandeville, will be another feature of the bill. Miss Levy is more sprightly than ever. Her songs are new, most of them being written by her husband, George M. Cohan, Miss Levy has some very handsome costumes, Nat, Material was a light of the property of the song will dish up a level.
