NO DEMONSTRATION AGAINST VATICAN

Garibaldian Celebration Passes Off Without Unpleasant Incidents.

Rome, Sept. 20.—Armed men in the service of the Pope have been on guard all day long at the entrances of the Apostolic Palace, and the Vatican has been under the special protection of a detachment of royal troops, but there has been no active outbreak of anti-clerical sentiments, and Sept. 20, the 37th anniversary of the occupation of Rome by Italian troops and the fall of the temporal power of the papacy, has passed without the fulfillment of any of the fears entertained by the Vatican that the Italian people would today show by deeds of violence their ill-feeling against the church.

There were two big parades this afternoon through the streets of the city, and the red shirts of the Garibaldian veterans were conspicuous in the throng. The first parade was official and composed of the members of 50 local associations. The leaders laid wreaths on the tombs of Victor Emmanuel II. and King Humbert, and decorated with flowers the table at the Portopia, which commemorates the entry of the Italian troops in 1870.

The other parade was popular and unofficial. It marched past the capitol, carrying banners inscribed with anti-clerical sentiments. Returning, the crowd raised a red flag over the equestrian statue of Marcus Aurelius. During the day the police seized a number of anti-monarchist proclamations, and the walls of the city were placarded with appeals to the people to "complete the anti-clerical victory at the coming municipal elections."

The events of 37 years ago are celebrated in Italy every year, but this time there were indications that the populace would take advantage of the demonstrations to indulge the anti-clerical sentiments that of recent months have caused the Vatican authorities considerable anxiety.

The day was celebrated throughout the peninsula as well as in Rome.

AN INTELLECTUAL TREAT

Rev. Dr. Kilpatrick at St. Andrew's, Strathroy—Fair a Success.

Strathroy, Sept. 20.—Mr. W. Osborne, of Los Angeles, Cal., visited friends here this week. The anniversary services in St. Andrew's Church on Sunday were largely attended. Rev. Dr. Kilpatrick, of Knox College, Toronto, preached morning and evening, and his discourses were much enjoyed by all. Special music by the choir, and solos by Misses Cameron and Dunsmore and Rev. and Mrs. Knox, added to the treat of the occasion.

The members of St. Andrew's Club gave a dinner Monday evening in the basement of St. Andrew's Church in honor of Professor Kilpatrick. About 75 persons were present, including the mayor and many prominent citizens. The tables were tastefully arranged, and after full justice had been done to the many delicacies provided, the president, Mr. O. Johnston, called on Mr. Forbes for a song. The speaker of the evening, Professor Kilpatrick, gave an inspiring address on "Patriotism," which was much appreciated. After a hearty vote of thanks had been tendered the guest of honor, Rev. W. Knox spoke briefly on the work of the club and the appreciation that all felt for the brilliant address given by their distinguished guest.

The directors of the Strathroy Fair are well satisfied with the results of the exhibition this season.

Mr. E. Henderson, of the Fidelity National Bank, New York, is home this week visiting his parents, Dr. and Mrs. Henderson.

The pupils of the Strathroy Collegiate Institute intend holding their annual athletic games on the fair grounds early in October.

Mr. Winlow Bixel has entered into partnership with Mr. D. C. Ross, M. P. Mr. Bixel is one of the most popular young men of the town, and will get his share of the legal business.

Rev. W. T. and Mrs. Cluff, of Stratford, visited the Misses Richardson, Albert street, this week.

BOURASSA ADVERTISING.

Montreal, Sept. 20.—Hon. W. A. Weir, provincial minister of public works, replying to the challenge of Mr. Bourassa to meet him at Ormstown, states that as there will be an election in Chateauguay County before long, he will be pleased to meet Bourassa there and to discuss provincial political matters with him. In the meantime he regards Bourassa as merely desirous of advertising himself.

DRUNK ON DUTY; GIVEN SIX MONTHS

A C. P. R. Operator Punished Under New Law Governing Such Cases.

Ottawa, Sept. 20.—The C. P. R. instituted a prosecution against an operator at Vankleek Hill named A. J. Ryan, for being under the influence of liquor while on duty. Two nights ago the agent found Ryan drunk and reported the matter to headquarters. The man was taken into custody and arraigned before a magistrate. Under the new law he was sentenced to six months imprisonment for the offense, which might have cost life to passengers.

KIPLING COMING

Famous Novelist and Poet To Visit the Dominion.

London, Sept. 20.—Rudyard Kipling and his wife left on a visit to Canada. They sailed on the Empress of Ireland. Dr. Morris, of the alien immigration board, who was recently reported as stating that trachoma cases are admitted into Canada, writes to the press contradicting the report.

The Canadian Northern Prairie Lands has passed a dividend of 10 per cent per annum. The London of the British Woman's Emigration Association, does not encourage trained servants to go to Canada, but the girl of domestic tastes, who has been in a shop or factory and finds it difficult to get into service in England, would become successful help there.

JEW-BAITING IN ODESSA

Forty Shops Wrecked and Five Persons Killed by Mob.

Odesa, Sept. 21.—Another organized attack on the Jewish quarter has been in progress here throughout last night and today in revenge for the death of five persons from the explosion of a bomb in a police station, attributed by the "Black Gang" to the Jews.

Forty shops have been wrecked, and five Jews killed, while over a hundred lie in the hospitals suffering from revolver, knife and knout wounds. As a protest against the supineness of the authorities the Bourse and the Grain Exchange were closed today, while a mixed deputation of Christians and Jews waited on General Kaubitz to urge him to compel the police to do their duty. He promised that tomorrow he will assign a whole regiment to do patrol duty in the town, and that he will cause the arrest of the rioters.

Advertiser Correspondence

Japanese Morality.

To the Editor of The Advertiser: While agreeing with Professor Alexander as to the injustice of your Washington correspondent's assertion that the people of California are an immoral people, I fear that he displays an ignorance of the Japanese and their mode of life in their own land, when he asserts that because a large number of Japanese occupy a quarter that would only be sufficient to accommodate a smaller number of whites, that the Japs must necessarily be dirty and immoral.

As one who lived in the Orient a longer time than Professor Alexander lived in California, and as one who is thoroughly familiar with the home, political and religious life of the people of the East, I would point out to Professor Alexander that the standard of morality among the Japanese is very high, and despite the fact that a large number do live together, they always observe, to them, the strictest moral code.

In Japan the houses are mere toy-houses, and it is astonishing how many do live in them, and it is indeed rare to find them either dirty or untidy. Naturally, when they come over here they bring their eastern idea of housing with them.

It is no argument against their morality or cleanliness to say that a number live together, for even a small western home would be large to the Japanese.

You will please understand that I am not advocating the introduction of the Japs or Hindus into this country. The argument is foolish when it turns on their morality.

The real argument against the influx is that no white man can live on about two and a half to three cents a day, and that is what the Japs and Hindus can do. The Japs and Hindus are of the East and are anxious to see them come.

Everyone who has lived in the East, and who is familiar with the conditions of life there, will be anxious to see some sort of legislation looking to the checking of the influx of the Japs and Hindus. If something is not done, life in British Columbia will only be possible to large employers of cheap labor. The white laborer will have to get out. Sincerely yours,

J. O'DONNELL, 427 William street.

Was He Shaved?

To the Editor of The Advertiser: I think it is time the fraudulent prices of some of your London barbers be exposed. I am simply outrageous! You walk into a shop and quietly ask your turn. "Next!" You take your place in the operating chair and ask for a hair-cut and shave. You get it. The soft seductive voice of the operator suggests that you have your hair shaved. You submit. Now, these three little operations, taking perhaps a half hour, what are you charged? One dollar! About three times a reasonable price. Now, these are pure facts and not overdrawn. And these are some of the things that certainly will not attract people to your barber. By publishing these facts you would be doing a favor, not only to the writer, but to your readers in general. A VISITOR TO THE FAIR. Kerwood, Sept. 16.

L. C. M.

To Our Patrons: The London Conservatory of Music and School of Elocution is growing to such an extent, that we have had to again change our policy. Seven new teachers (making in all 25 teachers) have been added to the staff. Parents may now have their children taught at home by our teachers, and yet enjoy the advantages of the Conservatory recitals, free lectures in theory by Mr. O'Donnell and advice and reports of progress by Mr. Barron. No one is compelled to play at recitals or for the principal, but we encourage it as a splendid means of growth. Teachers can now be had for as low as 25 cents a lesson. Our patrons choose their own teachers; the office must remain neutral, as we believe all our teachers are good or they would not be at the Conservatory.

The vocal department has been augmented by the addition of Mr. Galbraith, late of Glasgow, a baritone soloist of extended reputation. He is a man who comes with the finest testimonials. He is of a well-known and influential Scotch family, and a pupil of the best masters in England, including Shakespeare. He comes well equipped with technical knowledge and musical insight to teach the most advanced pupils. He makes a specialty of voice building and artistic singing. He has a splendid method and as seen from the singing of one of his pupils, Miss Wilkie, a contralto who has come from Scotland to continue her studies under Mr. Galbraith, he has excellent teaching ability. Mrs. Galbraith, who has also joined the conservatory staff, is a graduate under the distinguished teacher, Matthay, who created such a wonderful name through his excellent method. Mrs. Galbraith represents Mr. Matthay here in London, which is quite an honor. He has produced remarkable pupils through his method, and Mrs. Galbraith has his new ideas, which teachers ought to have. She also teaches cello and string ensemble playing. Miss Gertrude Moore, late of New York and Miss Belle Brown, city, have begun teaching again. Miss Moore is an exceptionally fine teacher of voice building and singing. She has studied with some of the best Italian masters, and is so well known, because of her rare ability in forming voices, that she has had offers from some of the best institutions in the United States to take charge of the vocal department, but she prefers to remain in London with her many friends and refuses the tempting offers. Miss Belle Brown is a graduate of Haslam, who made such success in Canada that he left for Paris, where he is one of the leading vocal teachers. Mr. Haslam has written Miss Brown many letters concerning her natural ability in developing voices. This ability has been amply exemplified to our own knowledge, for some of the pupils she has had have had voices of such diminutive size, that to one less courageous and faithful they would seem hopeless, but these same pupils have filled and are filling some

RED ROSE TEA

THE EXHIBITION OVER

One Cause of Its Success—The Earnestness of Exhibitors.

Unquestionably the recent Toronto Exhibition has been a success. One reason for its growth from year to year rests in the increasing earnestness of the exhibitors to make truly artistic displays. For example, the T. Eaton Company prepared a model home of five rooms that attracted thousands to the Manufacturers' Building. Every effort was made, not only to display the home-making goods which the company has for sale, but to provide an artistic ensemble. That this was accomplished cannot be doubted. The drawingroom in particular was most beautiful. The walls were paneled in delicate tints, the silken hangings and the soft rug on the floor were in harmony with the upholstery, and the mahogany furniture was exquisite. To complete the picture the company had selected a magnificent Goulay piano of Sheraton design to stand in the corner of the room. The effect was superb. Everyone knows that the Goulay is the best piano, both in case and in musical excellence, manufactured in Canada today, and the Eaton Company will never be found behind the times. It is announced that a similar display will be made by this firm at the Ottawa Exhibition. For their model drawingroom there also an Art Goulay piano has been selected. In fact, no really tasteful drawingroom is complete without this magnificent instrument.

THE YORK LOAN CLAIMS

Special Commission May Be Named To Expedite Adjustments.

Toronto, Sept. 20.—A special commissioner to sift the 114,000 claims of creditors against the assets of the York County Loan and Savings Company may be the solution adopted to get through the work with dispatch. This is the plan which will be submitted to Official Referee McLean in case the funds that he will be unable to give the work his entire attention till it is finished.

Mr. McLean has said that he could not begin on the work till about Oct. 10, and that then he might be able to give only every other week to hearing the claims. At this rate the adjustment of the claims might hang on until next summer, and not till that work is complete can there be a dividend. It is not contemplated that the entire estate will be wound up by that time, as there are assets, such as land, which can be realized upon only as demand arises.
