Ebber Wins from Dunn at Big H.D.S.A. Boxing Show

Burleigh Brothers Make Great Hit at Armories—"Young" Murray Given Decision Over Neville—Mason Fails to Throw Curtis Twice.

Judging by the boxing enthusiasts that crowded the armories last night to witness the excellent bill put on under the auspices of the patriotic sportsmen's committee of the H.D.S.A., the good old mitt game is coming back into its own as far as London is concerned. All the bouts and the one wrestling match were good, with the exception of the Milton-Fitzmore affair, which was one beautiful river. Milton, a colored gentleman of the Forest City, gave Big Fitzmore, who was pounds heavier, several love taps in the second round, and a sizzle quit cold, much colder, in fact, than a Hula Hula girl from Honolulu at the north pole. It was a wicked affair, now that we have got this unpleasant memory out of our system we will proceed to the real enjoyment of the evening.

Ebber Gets Decision. The scheduled main bout of the night.
