North, East and West Toronto Happenings-Newsy Notes From All Over York County.

NORTH TORONTO, Jan 5.—(Special.)—A great deal of discomfort and delay was occasioned early this morning by the infrequent service on the Glen Grove branch, due in a large measure to the sleet and ice forming on the rails and retarding the progress of the cars.

The installation of the tubes at a time like this would have happily overcome the difficulties incidental to

The opinion is general around town that the chairmanship of the finance and assessment committee will go to Walter Muston, whose splendid service as one of the town's auditors will eminently qualify him for the position. Apart from this Mr. Muston has had previous experience on the council board, and altogether it looks as the previous experience on the council board, and altegether it looks as tho

WEST TORONTO, Jan. 5 .- The money appropriation that will result from the carrying of the firehalls by-law at the recent elections will not affect ward seven. The bylaw of course, also applied to police stations in the cutlying districts, but altho No. 9 station is certainly in need of improvements, the cost of such will come out of the general tax rate. The bylaw only refers to districts where new police stations will have to be built, and not to those already in use which are in need of repairs.

Let Nothing Prevent You From Coming Here To-Morrow

No matter how bad the footing is, nor how far away you live, we offer savings here that will more than make up for your trouble. Every department on every floor realizes that this sweeping clearance is necessary, because: They must keep all stocks free from incomplete assortment.

-They must close out all lines before the end of the season for which they were purchased. So every cent you spend here to-morrow will yield you an immediate profit. If Christmas brought you gifts of money, this is the place and to-morrow is the time to spread it out. If ready cash is not at hand, investigate the plan of our Housefurnishing Clubmentioned below.
