SOME CLEVER WORK BY SIMCOE POLICE

Catch Brantford Man, Who Pleads Guilty to Theft of Watch From Hotel.

Brantford, Dec. 6.—(Special).—Clever work by the Simcoe police resulted in the arrest of Carl Scott, who was trying to dispose of a $35 watch for $5. Scott appeared in court here today and pleaded guilty to a charge of stealing the watch from the Benwell hotel here, and was remanded for sentence.

M. W. McEwen, appearing for Wm. Hume, charged with selling liquor, asked two out of the spotter who picked out Hume among the police court habitués. The first picked the wrong man, and the second declared after closely scrutinizing the people that Hume was not there. He was, however, and caused some surprise when he stepped up to the dock. The case was not concluded for a day.

The Dufferin Rifles' lineal successors of the Mad Fours, were inspected by Brig.-Gen. Williams this evening, with Col. M. A. Colquhoun, D.S.O., C.M.G., in command.

The value of a dog depends on circumstances. Herbert Cara appealed to the Brantford township council this morning for fifty dollars for a dog killed as a sheep warden, by township officials. The township assessor reported that Cara had told him that the dog was worthless for taxation purposes. The council accordingly took Cara's own valuation and refused to make compensation.

APPEAL TO CONSTANTINE TO ABANDON HIS CLAIM

Constantinople, Dec. 6.—As soon as the decision of the plebiscite in Greece, which resulted in favor of the return of former King Constantine, became known here, the Greek Patriarch called the Holy Synod and the lay council into extraordinary session, and it was decided to despatch an energetic appeal to Constantine exhorting him to abandon his claim to the Greek throne in favor of Prince George, pointing out that his return to Greece not only would endanger the position of Greece but would jeopardize the future of Hellenism.

The excitement among some of the Greeks reached such a pitch that there was talk of the possible isolation of Greece and the establishment of an independent Byzantium, including Thrace, Smyrna and Macedonia.

Monsignor Clune is a native of County Clare, and went to Australia 24 years ago. He arrived in Ireland last August, and after visiting several weeks at Ennis and other districts in County Clare, made a number of trips back and forth to Ennis. He stated to The Associated Press yesterday that negotiations still were progressing, but that it was too soon to make any positive prediction relative to their success. He declared, however, he had great hope that good would be forthcoming from efforts made in the last week, and expressed confidence a truce could be arranged before Christmas. He is exercising full powers of mediation and arbitration to achieve that end.

Monsignor Clune planned to have a final interview with Sir Hamar Greenwood, chief secretary for Ireland, who made a special week-end trip to this island in connection with the peace movement. The Australian prelate expects to go to London to report on the result of his work to Premier Lloyd George. Every facility to carry out his mission had been given him by the government, he said, and he was so free from espionage that he has talked not only with Arthur Griffith and other republican and Nationalist leaders, but with men in the active element of the Sinn Fein movement on whom the government is trying its utmost to lay its hands.

"It is too early as yet to make public what thus far has been accomplished," he said, when asked the nature of the settlement he thought it was possible to reach. "Whether my effort bears fruit is for London to determine. For it is there peace must be made, and not in Ireland. My work has been merely to try to arrange the preliminaries and I will know, perhaps in a week, whether it has been successful."

So far as can be ascertained, members of the British Labor commission visiting Ireland are not directly concerned in the peace movement which, Monsignor Clune is engineering. Arthur Henderson had a talk with Cardinal Logue yesterday and is returning to England, leaving other members of the commission to pursue their investigations.

Mrs. Wilson Entertains. WHITE HOUSE SUCCESSOR

Washington, Dec. 6.—For the first time within the memory of the oldest attendee of the White House, a first lady of the land entertained today a next first lady of the land.

Mrs. Florence Kling Harding, wife of the president-elect, was the guest of Mrs. Edith Bolling Wilson, wife of the president at an informal tea for two at the executive mansion late this afternoon. Mrs. Wilson met her guest in the front hall and escorted her to the blue room, where tea was served.

After Mrs. Wilson and Mrs. Harding had chatted a while they walked about the White House, thru the green and red rooms and the state dining room, over which Mrs. Harding will be called upon to preside after next March 4. Mrs. Harding did not meet the president who had retired to his study on the upper floor to read, nor was she shown over the White House kitchen.

STILL EXPLORING AVENUES TO PEACE

London Times Comments on Interrupted Negotiations With Sinn Fein.

London, Dec. 6.—Unofficial relations between members of the British ministry and Sinn Fein leaders, which have been entirely interrupted, are reviewed by The London Times in commenting on rumors of peace negotiations in Ireland. During the past six weeks at least four channels for unofficial communication with various sections of influential Nationalist opinion in Ireland had been kept open in spite of crimes in Ireland and reprisals on the part of crown forces there, the object of maintaining order and restoring peace not having been lost sight of by either side.

Reports of recent exchanges of views are confirmed by the newspaper, which says these were not initiated in any official quarter, but that some members of the government had taken opportunities to hear accounts of the true conditions in the island from sources other than those to which the government's official informants had access.

"An eminent Irish writer," says The Times, "recently furnished Premier Lloyd George with more valuable information than had been contained in official reports, but the arrest of Arthur Griffith, which was made without the knowledge or consent of the cabinet, checked, if it did not actually interrupt, exchanges of views."

Will Not Abandon Bill. "Discussions that had been going on have not involved any questions of abandoning the home rule bill, the being an amendment of that measure in direction of fiscal and financial autonomy, provided that after a truce was arranged the majority of the Irish electorate outside the six counties of Ulster should indicate readiness to accept the measure thus amended."

"The one phase of the negotiations may have broken down, the government is still exploring such avenues toward peace as may still be open. It is clear influences inimical to any Irish settlement are seeking deliberately to obstruct the government's plan. It has been suggested Premier Lloyd George has acted behind the dealing with leaders of the popular movement in Ireland will incur serious disapproval from one section of the coalition cabinet."

Hope that neither the premier nor the government should be deterred by mischief-making of this kind," is expressed by the newspaper.

Working for Peace. "Dublin, Dec. 6.—Determined efforts to bring about an early peace in Ireland are being made here. Conversations have been in progress more than a week, and hope was expressed last night by some of those engaged in the negotiations that within another week a tangible basis of settlement might be reached."

The chief intermediary at work is the Rev. Patrick Joseph Clune, Bishop of Australia, who, it is understood, has been asked by Premier Lloyd George to sound out the Sinn Fein sentiment, and prepare, if possible, the ground on which a foundation for the peace edifice can be reared."

Monsignor Clune is a native of County Clare, and went to Australia 24 years ago. He arrived in Ireland last August, and after visiting several weeks at Ennis and other districts in County Clare, made a number of trips back and forth to Ennis. DOHERTY PRAISES BIG WATER FAIR

Says Guelph Show Finest in America—Announce Many Prize-Winners.

Guelph, Ont., Dec. 6.—(Special).—"I believe this is the finest show of its kind ever held in the Province of Ontario, if not on the continent of America," said Hon. Manning Doherty, minister of agriculture, officially declaring the Ontario provincial winter fair open this afternoon. There was a good crowd in attendance, great enthusiasm was manifested in the judging, and as the show progresses the quality of the stock continues to improve.

One of the chief features of the show today was an announcement of the result of the three days dairy test. Marion De Kol Wins.

The winner turned up in the 10-year-old Holstein cow, Marion De Kol, owned by J. G. Currie, of Ingersoll. She gave during the three days, 27.4 pounds of milk, average per cent. of butter fat, 3.27; average per cent. solids, not fat, 9.11. Total pounds, 292.99. Second in the test was Pioneer Snowflake, owned by W. Rivers and Sons, Ingersoll; third, Pearl of Galgaido, an Ayrshire, owned by H. Macpherson, Newburg.

In the morning the time was taken up with the stock judging contest and the judging of the shires and Belgian horses, both classes being small.

The Shorthorns were the centre of attraction in the arena all afternoon. W. J. Boyd, the judge, had a hard time selecting the winners in some of the classes, but gave general satisfaction. He said that the females were the best he had ever seen, the bulls and the steers of exceptional quality. The feature of the show was the contest for the championship steer. The University of Alberta made a strong bid for the honor, with Albert Supreme, but Charlie Chapin, owned by the University of Saskatchewan, considered the better of the two. All the beef cattle championships were won by Ontario. In the steer class G. Farrow of Oakville won with Rosebud of Hickory Ridge and George Ferguson, Elora, won in the bull class with Gaius.

Nearly All Seeds Judged. With the exception of the classes in clover and timothy, which were not judged at Ottawa, all the seeds have been judged and the championships awarded. The seeds show the greatest variety in many years and the competition was very keen.

The fall wheat championship went to Mr. J. A. Cookburn of Puslinch; the spring wheat championship to R. Talbot and Son, Guelph; the oat championship to Wm. Huchinson of Rockwood; the barley championship to G. R. Berrie of Galt; the pea championship to E. R. Goltz of Bardville, Muskoka; the beans championship to A. S. Maynard of Chatham; the lentil championship to E. R. Goltz of Bardville; the flint corn championship to R. J. Johnston, Chatham; the potato championship to E. R. Goltz of Bardville.

Trophy to York County. Hon. Mr. Doherty presented the Duff trophy to the York county judging team in the arena tonight, and in doing so he said that this trophy had been won "merely because I hoped to present another trophy to the province."

The Hackney ponies were judged tonight and brought out some good classes, the champion being Prince Philip, owned by Crow and Murray, Toronto. The champion lion was owned by Rattler, Hastings Bros., Guelph.

They Pearl, 6 in the stable of King George, carried the lion's share of the class of thoroughbreds. He was exhibited by E. B. Clancy of Guelph.

REPLICA OF CAMPANILE FOR NIAGARA MEMORIAL

Niagara Falls, Ont., Dec. 6.—The foundation is being laid in the centre of the Main street, for a permanent memorial to the brave boys from this town who died in the great war. The site is immediately opposite the old court house. The thoroughfare planned for a great city by Governor Simcoe in 1790, is 100 feet wide and offers an ideal site for the memorial. The structure will be a miniature replica of the Campanile, a tower which St. Mark's Cathedral at Venice. The tower will include a clock four feet in diameter. Electric wires will be connected with the bell now hanging in the cupola of the court house, upon which the hours will be struck. This bell was brought out from England nearly a century ago. The names of the honored dead will be engraved upon the sides of the tower.

CIVIC NOMINATIONS IN PRAIRIE CITIES

Mayors of Saskatoon, Prince Albert, Regina and Lethbridge by Acclamation.

Winnipeg, Man., Dec. 6.—(By Canadian Press).—Civic nominations were held this afternoon in the cities of Alberta and Saskatchewan, with few unexpected features arising. Mayor A. McO. Young of Saskatoon was re-elected by acclamation.

Similar honors were accorded T. C. Davis, who becomes mayor of Prince Albert. Mayor Grassick of Regina and Mayor Hardie of Lethbridge also drew no opposition.

Moose Jaw has a field of four for the mayoralty—William Gardner, Labor candidate, and three aldermen. C. H. Boyd, W. G. Ross and Dr. R. H. DRAMATIC RAID ON DUBLIN CITY HALL clouds which have been over our country for some time. The Archbishop of Tuam has appealed for aid of the God, and Cardinal Logue (Primate of Ireland) has given his blessing to the appeal.

The Archbishop of Dublin has stated that any effort which has for its object the cessation of all acts of violence and other provocative acts would receive the approval of the Catholic hierarchy. Roger Sweetman, member of the Dail Eireann, has spoken in favor of peace. The Galway county council has passed resolutions in favor of a truce and in favor also of a conference between representatives of the British government to arrange a truce, and the preliminary of peace.

"Outside of this country there are forces favoring a just peace. We have the noble and energetic statesmen of the Belgian Bishops, for which Ireland must ever be grateful. We are also sympathetic for Ireland displayed in the Irish parliament."

"These and other things give some rays of hope. Let us invoke the aid of the Immaculate Mother of God. She will be desert us not when we ask her to obtain for us a just and lasting peace."

Town Clerk Arrested. London, Dec. 6.—Soldiers conducting a raid in Queenstown have arrested Hugh O'Reilly, the town clerk, it being alleged that he had received a despatch to The Daily Mail. The residence of the Most Rev. M. Fogarty, Bishop of Killarney, at Ennis, also was raided on Sunday during the absence of the bishop, and some papers were confiscated.

The newspaper's labor correspondent states that during the interview between Arthur Henderson, Labor leader in the house of commons, and Cardinal Logue, primate of Ireland, last week, the cardinal said he was extremely anxious to assist in ending the reign of terror, and that the Catholic hierarchy would exert every effort to bring about a permanent settlement of the Irish problem.

Guilty of Treachery. London, Dec. 6.—At a meeting of the Sinn Fein divisional council in Dublin during the week-end, reference was made to the report that negotiations were proceeding between the Sinn Fein and the British government, and the Central News' Dublin correspondent today. It was decided that any person or persons discussing terms of a settlement of the war with the British government, or any person acting as a "foreign" government, or "Irish republican" parliament, is guilty of treachery and that any such negotiations and the results thereof will be repudiated by the people of Ireland, the correspondent adds.

NO GREEK LOANS IF KING RESTORED

Britain Presents a Note to Greece, and France Follows Suit.

Athens, Dec. 6.—Great Britain will extend no further financial aid to Greece in case former King Constantine returns to the throne according to a note presented to the Greek government yesterday by Earl Granville, British minister in this city. The French minister also presented a note to the government demanding the payment of outstanding loans. Both the notes forbid the issuance by the National Bank of paper money already printed against a loan of 400,000,000 drachmas which was arranged during the regime of former Premier Venizelos.

"We can only do what the people want," said Premier Tsallis, speaking of the two communications. "The present has received no word from Constantine. I will reply in a few days to the British and French notes."

Returns from the plebiscite held thruout Greece yesterday, which was to decide whether the Greek people would accept former King Constantine to the throne made vacant by the death of his son, King Alexander, indicate a majority of 500,000 in favor of the return of Constantine, and claims are made that the entire electorate of 800,000 voted for him. Four million ballots were printed for the plebiscite.

Crowds Wild for Constantine. The wild scenes which marked the departure of former Premier Venizelos on November 17 were again enacted last evening in celebration of the result of the plebiscite, which was known before the vote was taken. A crowd estimated at 200,000 in all, which were babies, children, women, civil servants, girls, peasants, women from court circles, sailors and soldiers, gathered in Place de la Constitution, near the king's palace, converging on that square by all streets. Some were walking, some riding in carts and automobiles, and some worked themselves into a perfect frenzy, waving flags of all nations, olive branches and paintings and photographs of Constantine.

A large part of the crowd was composed of women who clamored for permission to vote. As they marched along, they chanted madly: "Constantine has promised us the vote."

It is planned that the liner Paris will meet Constantine at Brindisi late this week.

GOVERNMENT AGAIN MEETS WITH DEFEAT

New Clause to Home Rule Bill Adopted by House of Lords.

London, Dec. 6.—The government was again defeated in the house of lords tonight when an amendment proposing a new clause to the home rule bill, offered by the Marquis of Salisbury, was carried by a vote of 51 to 30.

This amendment provided that neither the northern nor the southern parliament should be established until the King's authority and the protection of the rights and liberties of all persons in both northern and southern Ireland were fully assured, and that otherwise the appointed day for putting the act in force should be fixed by resolution of the imperial parliament.

Criticized Safeguards. In moving his new clause to the bill, the Marquis of Salisbury strongly criticized the safeguards in the bill respecting the oath of allegiance and the proposed crown colony system of administration in the event of either parliament not functioning.

Lord Birkenhead, the lord chancellor, declared that the government could not accept the amendment as the government's own proposals contained adequate securities.

The general belief was expressed in the lobby of the house tonight that some of the changes in the bill as made in the house of lords would not be persisted in. It is expected that the proposal to substitute a joint session of senators for the council will not be pressed, and the belief was expressed that the government would agree to establish a senate for the south, if not for the north of Ireland.

Edinburgh Voted Strongly Against Change in License

London, Dec. 6.—(By Canadian Press).—Details published in connection with the Edinburgh prohibition referendum show that 63 per cent of the electorate voted. The struggle, during the closing days of the campaign, was extraordinarily keen. Speakers against prohibition being brought from all quarters. The working class districts gave a substantial majority against any change in conditions in the areas where even the brewers acknowledge that there is necessity for a reduction of license. The only districts where the "drys" made headway were in Morpeth, Trinity and Marchmont, residential districts, where licenses are already scarce.
