Advertising that restores public confidence. Advertising that creates demand, increases production, and keeps the wheels humming. Advertising that steadies markets. Advertising

For the past few years advertising has often been used as a spectacular plaything. Today it is a grim necessity. The time to splurge has passed. The time to use it sanely, steadily, consistently has come.

Advertise. But advertise wisely—where expense is minimized; where business can be developed to the highest point of activity.

Where can that development be more effective than in the great Ontario Market?
