ACTUAL OVERDRAFT $1300 FOR SEWERS COMMITTEE

Eleven Nurses Graduate From the City Hospital and Receive Their Diplomas.

Hamilton, Nov. 18.—(Special.)—The only thing of interest that came before the sewers committee this evening was the financial statement. It showed an actual overdraft up to date of $1300, and Chairman Wallace stated that by the end of the year it would amount to $3100. Over $2000 of that is in the sewage disposal works account, for which the council did not allow enough to cover fixed expenses.

Eleven nurses, who have been trained at the City Hospital, graduated this afternoon. Medals and diplomas were presented to them and diplomas were presented to the following: Misses Olive R. Thirston, Marguerite Walker, Clara Looney, Barton M. Lyons, Annie H. Campbell, Ella Duffield, Elizabeth A. McLeish, Alma R. Thompson, Gertrude Summerfeldt, Jessie M. Valens and Florence Torrey.

The governors defended themselves against recent attacks that have been made upon them.

Lots of Natural Gas.

There were no less than three companies in the field wanting to supply the city with natural gas. The Ontario Pipe Line Co. secured a franchise some weeks ago, the price of gas being fixed at 45 cents a thousand feet. Now the Standard Gas Company, made up of J. J. Scott, K.C., H. N. Kittson, C. T. Grantham, Dr. Griffin and some Buffalo capitalists, are offering better terms for a franchise. They are willing to set the price at 35 cents, and to give the city one cent on every thousand feet they sell. The franchise given to the Ontario Pipe Line Company is not exclusive, but it is admitted to be impracticable to give several companies the right to tear up the streets. The Dominion Gas Company is also seeking a franchise.

After the Percentage.

The city has started another action against the street railway to obtain a percentage of the company's receipts on the Jockey Club line and a percentage on the gross receipts. The company contends that it is only bound to pay a percentage on the fares collected. The city secured a judgment against the company for the amount in dispute previous to the year 1901, but the company appealed. Now the city wants the amount in dispute since 1901. The sum involved is a little over $2000.

It is charged that ward attendants, who drank so much that they had to be strapped in their beds, have been employed at the city hospital. The governors say they will hold an investigation on all the charges that have been made against the management.

A Good Gate.

The gate in the Tiger-Varsity game Thanksgiving Day amounted to $885.

The local postoffice and some of the banks have posted up notices to the effect that they will not take American silver coins.

The Hamiltons' average age 16 years, would like to arrange a football game with any Toronto team for Saturday, Nov. 26, to be played at Hamilton, the return match to be played in Toronto. Address A. R. Fitzgerald, Bank of Hamilton, Hamilton.

PURITY FROM NEW CABINET WHEN WATER RUNS UP HILL

That's Thos. Crawford's Opinion—Sixth Ward Ass'n Will Attend Conference All Together.

Members of the Sixth Ward Conservative Association attended in splendid force last night the meeting held in MacMath's Hall. President John Latxon was in the chair, and among those present were: E. B. Osler, Claude Macdonell, Thomas Crawford, M.L.A, Andrew Miscampbell, Edmund Bristol, Col. Gray, Capt. Gooderham, Seymour Corley, A. B. Brown, Henry Simpson, and George Spotton. Listowel. All the appointments made were acclamatory, as follows:

President—John Laxton.
First vice-president—Ald. McGhie.
Second vice-president—A. E. Millett.
Third vice-president—R. S. Burrows.
Fourth vice-president—Peter Larkin.
Secretary—Lt. R. H. Orr.
Assistant secretary—J. E. Laxton.
Treasurer—J. C. Gray.

The vacancies in the executive committee will be filled by John Fawcett, S. H. Bradford, George Gleun, J. C. Pettit, Jas. Austin and J. C. Pratt.

"What about the Conservative delegates?" asked someone. The matter was disposed of by the cordial reception of the president's suggestion that everybody attend.

The member for South Toronto then thanked South Parkdale for its support in the recent elections. He scored Premier Ross for his measures taken to ensure attendance at his convention of delegates of the cut-and-dried order.

All odds favored the Conservatives in the coming fight.

A Contrast.

Thomas Crawford, M.L.A., thought a critical moment had been reached. He contrasted the premier's effort to whitewash his reputation by a convention with the meeting called by Mr. Whitney to demand clean, honest government. Of the premier's reconstructed cabinet, he would only remark that, judging from its material, if moral reform were to come from it then a stream might be expected to run uphill.

E. B. Osler expressed the opinion that the coming elections were, perhaps, as important as those of the Dominion. The country at large was waiting to see if Ontario was still corrupt. The premier's convention move was a clever one. Doubtless high-sounding resolutions would be passed, but these would not cover ballot-stuffing and the other species of fraud.

George Spotton, Listowel, intimated that, rather than let East Huron go Liberal by default, he had consented to accept the candidature in the enemy's stronghold, altho he was using endeavors to induce a stronger man to enter the field. Mr. Spotton made a good impression, and was heartily applauded.

Andrew Miscampbell, Ald. McGhie, Capt. Thompson and J. C. Gray also spoke.

CROWDS AT NEW YORK HORSE SHOW

Hunt Club Representative in the Ring—Blue Ribbon for English Girl.

New York, Nov. 18.—The crowds at the horse show this afternoon and to-night were the largest of the week and this has been the most successful year in the matter of attendance which the National Horse Show Association of America had.

The most picturesque feature of the afternoon was the class in which three members of the various hunt clubs appeared in the distinctive uniforms of the hunt. Four different clubs competed. They were the Cameron Run Hunt Club from Alexandria, Va.; Richmond County Hunt, West Chester Hunt and Essex Hunt of Orange, N.J. The Virginia Huntsmen easily carried off the blue ribbon. Their horses were very nearly matched; they fenced better; the uniforms were more distinctive and the riders more of a height, and in general conformation they easily were ahead. The three riders with the mounts were Mr. Evans on Garnet Ripples; Mr. Hoff, on Tip Top, Mrs. Stubbs, on Lucky Sullivan.

What always proves to be the prettiest sight in the horse show was on the program to-day, when a class of Shetland ponies were shown. None of the horses were larger than a good-sized dog and they were driven to small wagons by children.

Aberdeen of Pittsford and Pressay of Pittsford, owned by E. F. Hawley, were awarded the blue and red ribbons respectively. Monte Carlo, the tiniest pony of all, which was driven by Miss Natalie Watt, the daughter of T. L. Watt, who owns the animal, received third prize.

Mrs. John Gerkin's pony, Doncaster Model, won the blue ribbon in the class for ponies other than Shetlands.

An extraordinary demonstration took place when the English girl, Miss Ella Ross, was awarded the blue ribbon in the novice class, for a pair, for her black geldings, Rowton Black Thorn and Rowton Viena. When the pair were picked out by the judges for the honor and the blue rosette was being affixed to the handsome head of Rowton Black Thorn, there was an outburst of cheering that lasted several minutes and was revived again and again. Miss Ross has brought over a number of horses and vehicles and universal sympathy has been extended her because of her poor luck when her exhibits were judged.

ANGLO-PORTUGUESE TREATY.

London, Nov. 18.—The Anglo-Portuguese treaty of arbitration, the signing of which was announced by King Edward at the state banquet at Windsor Castle, on Nov. 16, was issued to-night. It contains only three articles.

The first article provides that differences of a legal nature or relating to the interpretation of existing treaties which can not be settled diplomatically shall be referred to the permanent court of arbitration at The Hague, provided it does "not affect the vital interests, independence or honor of the two contracting parties and does not concern the interests of third parties."

The second article provides the mode of procedure prior to appealing to the court, and the third article provides that the agreement shall be concluded for a term of five years.

CY. HAS 10 MAJORITY.

Winnipeg, Nov. 18.—(Special.)—The recount of the ballots in the Provencher election began this morning, at the county court house, before Judge Walker. There were present, besides Messrs. Cyr and La Riviere, Returning Officer Alexander A. Votte of St. Jean Baptiste and his election clerk, also H. M. Howell, K.C., and H. Royal, legal representatives for Mr. Cyr, and Alfred Andrews and Joseph Bernier, who appeared to watch the interests of Mr. La Riviere. Altho several losses and gains were made on the recount, the final result came out the same as before, 10 majority for Cyr, Liberal.

VOICE OF COLONIES.

(Canadian Associated Press Cable.)

London, Nov. 18.—In view of the repeated denials by Lord Rosebery and others of the fact that there was a colonial offer of reciprocity, the Tariff Reform League has issued a pamphlet, entitled, "The Voice of the Colonies," setting out the salient points of the statements made in Canada, Australia, New Zealand and South Africa in favor of preferential tariffs.
