

Clergy would consent to become Working Associates, so that in every Parish throughout the Dominion there should be at least one person fully informed of the work and aims of the G. F. S., to whom Members could be commended, and who would be interested in organizing the work in her neighbourhood, should an opportunity present itself.

The General Secretary will be glad to furnish information regarding the Society, specimens of its publications, &c., to any persons applying to her for the same. A fee of 60 cents a year is required from Working Associates, to be paid to the Central Fund, if they are not attached to a Branch.

THE "FRIENDLY MESSENGER."

Although the Council has not altered its opinion as to the need and value of having some means of communication between our widely scattered Branches, such as is afforded by the small monthly paper of our Society, the effort has been so insufficiently encouraged by the different Branches that not only has it been found impossible to enlarge and improve upon it, as it was proposed to do, but it is feared unless some special effort is made this year, that we shall not be able any longer to carry on the Friendly Messenger. The reserve fund which had been appropriated to supplying the deficit in its expenses, will soon be exhausted, and the venture is as far as ever from being self-supporting. We cannot help thinking that many more Associates might take the paper, passing it on to those Members
