WINTER PORT ACCIDENTS

Several accidents occurred at the winter port over the week-end, but none of them were of a serious nature. On Saturday night George Reid, a longshoreman, was caught between a loaded sling and the edge of the hatchway. He was badly crushed about the chest. He was removed to the general public hospital. He resides in Duke street, West St. John. On Sunday morning Fred Johnston, who was working on a steamer, fell from the gangway to the deck, a distance of about eight feet. He sustained some painful injuries. He was removed to his home in St. James street, city. Early last evening Vernon Brewster had his arm badly lacerated while working about the hoisting engine on one of the steamers. He was taken to the general public hospital. He is a native of Harvey Bank. Charles Good, a native of Carleton county, sustained a bad fracture of the arm yesterday. He was taken to the general public hospital.

CARRIGAN WILL NOT RETURN TO BASEBALL

Lewiston, Me., Jan. 4.—William F. Carrigan on Thursday gave a final negative answer to H. H. Frazee, one of the new owners of the Boston Americans, who has been trying to induce him to resume the management of the Red Sox. After he conversed by telephone with Frazee at Boston, Carrigan said he could not be induced to return to the game. On account of business and personal interests, he desires to remain here where he is organizing two banks. Boston, Jan. 4.—In declining the management of the Boston Americans Thursday, William F. Carrigan promised to aid the new manager and the new owners in any way possible. President H. H. Frazee stated, "Carrigan volunteered to give his services for one
