MAGNIFICENT ESSANAY PRODUCTION FASCINATING STORY WELL TOLD

THE EVER-POPULAR FRANCIS X. BUSHMAN IN "THE ACCOUNTING"

An enthralling story of the Russian secret service, produced in conjunction with "The Ladies' World." It's a real red-blooded drama that grips and holds the interest at fever heat from the first flash of the projector to the last stirring scene in the play. Commencing with a remarkable situation of unbounded interest, it finishes with a terrific climax.

"NEAL OF THE NAVY" GEM

Great New Serial of Popular Interest Opens With First Chapter "THE SURVIVORS" Today With Other Big Features at Ever Popular

Everybody likes the well known story of "NEAL OF THE NAVY." It's a drama of life on the bounding water, the hero being a young naval lieutenant. In "Survivors" and "Lillian Loraine" who appear in the leading roles are seen in the "opening chapter as children, following a shipwreck near Mount Pelee, which is shown in eruption. The scenes of the shipwreck are most realistic. See "THE SURVIVORS" today, the opening two parts of "Neal of the Navy."

WILLARD TO RECEIVE $30,000 OFFER FOR BOUT

Jess Willard, heavyweight champion of the world, will receive an offer of $30,000 to defend his title in a ten-round bout at Madison Square Garden. Billy Gibson, of New York, who has taken over the boxing management of the Garden, is after big game, and he will try to get Willard to box the winner of the contest between Jim Coffey, Res., common giant, and Frank Moran, a Pittsburgh heavyweight, which will take place in the garden ring on Oct. 18. The new manager may also try to match Willie Ritchie and Freddie Welsh. He has many plans in view, but he said that he could not announce all of them until later.

A bout in Halifax last evening between Johnny Mello of Gloucester, Mass., and Nelly McIntyre, of Gloucester, ended unsatisfactorily. McIntyre hit his opponent low in the seventh round and the fight was awarded to the contest between Jim Coffey, Res.,
