

POLICE CALLED FOR COMBAT ON SCHOONER HERE

Mate of Marine to Jail and Cook Goes to Hospital

Excitement was caused this afternoon about 1:30 o'clock when a fight started between two men on the schooner Marine, lying at Star's wharf. Men working nearby called Policeman Corcoran, who was on traffic duty at the Mill street crossing, and Max Williams, mate of the vessel, was arrested and taken to the police station, and John E. Baird, cook, was taken to the General Public Hospital.

BOYS GIVEN CHANCE

Four Were in Court on Charges of Stealing

Four juveniles appeared in the Police Court this morning, three of the boys charged with stealing last night valuable to the amount of $6 from an auto owned by Walter Scribner, parked on the north side of Queen Square. They pleaded guilty. The same three boys and a fourth were charged with breaking and stealing from the Eastern Steamship Company's warehouse on last Sunday afternoon, goods amounting to $20. They pleaded guilty. Parents and guardians appeared for them. Magistrate Henderson said it was the first time any of the boys had been before him and that if the parents or guardians thought they could do something with the boys he would allow them to go this time. The guardian of one boy said that he could not do a thing with him. C. R. Mercereau, who was in court, said he would be responsible for the boy. They were all allowed to go.

DECISION IS GIVEN

Dorchester Street Property Matter in Chancery Court

In the Chancery Court this morning, Mr. Justice O'Brien made a decision in the case of Robertson vs. Wilson, to the effect that the leasehold property said that he could not do a thing with him. C. R. Mercereau, who was in court, said he would be responsible for the boy. They were all allowed to go.

September Weddings

Pedersen-Stevens

A very pretty wedding was solemnized in the Church of the Good Shepherd, Fairville, this afternoon at 4 o'clock, when Rev. F. J. Lefroy, rector of the church, united in marriage Miss Eva May Stevens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Stevens, Corners street, Fairville, and Oscar T. Pedersen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Viggo Pedersen, of Brookville. The church was beautifully decorated with white phlox, gold and autumn leaves, by friends of the bride, and Miss Grace Pedersen, of the bride. Miss Edna Stevens, sister of the groom, attired in dresses of coral and white, ushered the invited guests and relatives to pews which were marked with bows of white ribbon. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a pretty dress of white tulle with beaded trimmings, and a bridal veil caught with orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of butterfly roses. She was attended by Miss Margarette Henderson, who wore a dress of powder blue tulle with hat to match, and carried an old-fashioned nosegay of sweetest roses and sweet daisy. The bridegroom was supported by William Stevens, brother of the groom, and the bride entered the church Miss Lora Wahler, organist, played the wedding march from Lohengrin, and the bride left the church to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march. While the register was being signed, Miss Evelyn Stearn sang "Love You Truly." After the ceremony the bride party motored to the bride's parents, where a dainty buffet luncheon was served. The house was adorned with a profusion of golden flowers and ferns. After the reception Mr. and Mrs. Pedersen left on a wedding trip to Boston and New York. They will reside in New Jersey City. The bride's traveling suit was of navy blue velvet with trimmings of white and black velvet hat trimmed with coral, and a fox fur, the gift of the groom. Among the many beautiful gifts of silver, cut glass and linen were a half dozen cut glass goblets from Baxter Lodge, L. O. B. A., of which the bride was a member, and a gift of silver from the girls of the office staff of T. McAvity & Sons, Ltd.; also a suitable gift from the local employees of the bridegroom. The bride has many friends in the city who extend best wishes for their happiness.

Gillis-Lombard

A very pretty wedding was solemnized this morning at 9 o'clock in Holy Trinity church, when Rev. Francis Cronin, with nuptial mass, united in marriage Theresa E., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Lombard, Cedar street, and Eugene F., son of Mr. and Mrs. Catherine and the late Edward Gillis. The bride, who was given away by her father, looked lovely in a sand ensemble suit with hat to match and carried a fox fur. She carried a bouquet of American Beauty roses. The bride was attended by Miss Vesta Gillis as bridesmaid, who was prettily attired in a general dress of white tulle with beaded trimmings and a fox fur and carried an old-fashioned nosegay. John R. Rolston was groomsmen. The little Misses Catherine and Constance Gillis, nieces of the groom, made lovely little flower girls in pale green organdy with bandeau of silver and carried baskets of sweet peas. The bridegroom's gift to the bride was a silver service, to the bridesmaid, a sapphire ring, and to the groomsmen a gold engraved fountain pen and pencil. The little flower girls were each presented gold bracelets.

Porter-Northup

A very pretty wedding was solemnized this morning at 9 o'clock in the home of the officiating clergyman, Rev. E. R. MacWilliam, when Mary Alwilda Northup, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Northup of Cape Island, bride, and James S. Porter, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Porter, groom, were united in marriage. The bride was given away by her father, and looked lovely in a sand ensemble suit with hat to match and carried a fox fur. She carried a bouquet of American Beauty roses. The bride was attended by Miss Vesta Gillis as bridesmaid, who was prettily attired in a general dress of white tulle with beaded trimmings and a fox fur and carried an old-fashioned nosegay. John R. Rolston was groomsmen. The little Misses Catherine and Constance Gillis, nieces of the groom, made lovely little flower girls in pale green organdy with bandeau of silver and carried baskets of sweet peas. The bridegroom's gift to the bride was a silver service, to the bridesmaid, a sapphire ring, and to the groomsmen a gold engraved fountain pen and pencil. The little flower girls were each presented gold bracelets.

Walter Nolles, Main street, was in the Police Court today to answer a charge of keeping a disorderly house. Magistrate Henderson asked E. J. McNeenberry, who appeared for the defence, to impress upon Nolles that his house must be run orderly. Nolles was also called on to answer a charge of assaulting his wife, on last Saturday night in their home. Mrs. Benjamin Banks and Frank Delabank testified about screams from the Nolles' flat. He was fined $20.

Mrs. Nolles appeared charged with assaulting her husband on September 22 in Main street. Mr. Dempster gave evidence. She was fined $20. Husband and wife agreed to separate and put their two smallest children in a home.

GOOD THINGS COMING TO THEATRES OF SAINT JOHN

LAST DAY FOR THE "SON OF THE SHEIK"

The burning romance, "The Son of the Sheik," with Rudolph Valentino and Vilma Banky, which filled the Imperial to capacity again last night, is to receive its final four screenings this afternoon and tonight—2 o'clock, 4:45, 7 and 9:45. It has been a sensational success, much better than "The Sheik" of five years ago, and a marvellous sequel. The Rex Pony Circus appears at 3:30, 8:30 and 10. It has proved a most diverting novelty. Special prices. Tomorrow the Imperial returns to its regular routine of admission prices with the roaring Paramount farce, "The Show-off," featuring Ford Sterling, Friday-Saturday, Milton Sills and Gene Tunney.
