POOR DOCUMENT

THE EVENING TIMES-STAR, SAINT JOHN, N. B., TUESDAY, OCTOBER 12, 1926

The Evening Times Star

The Evening Times-Star, printed at 25-27 Canterbury street, every evening (Sunday excepted) by New Brunswick Publishing Co., Ltd., J. D. McKenna President.

Telephone—Private branch exchange connecting all departments. Main 2417 2417.
Subscription Price—By mail per year, in Canada, $5.00; United States, $6.00; by carrier per year, $4.00.
The Evening Times-Star has the largest circulation of any evening paper in the Maritime Provinces.
Advertising Representatives:—New York, Ingraham-Powers, Inc., 25.
Madison Ave.; Chicago, Ingraham-Powers, Inc., 19 South La Salle Street.
The Audit Bureau of Circulation audits the circulation of The Evening Times-Star.

SAINT JOHN, N. B., OCTOBER 12, 1926.

OUR FELLOW-CITIZENS.

Probably but a small fraction of those that there is an awakening in Africa and that traders as well as missionaries brought under the influence of civiliza-

THE REDOUBTABLE CALDER. child-welfare work, especially along the line of religious education. It is a The people of the Maritime Provinces community as well as an individual ere for the present denied the publicawork, for upon the children rests the ion of the Duncan report, but R. I.. future of our country. alder, K. C. of Montreal, is already convinced. He knows all about the Maritime Provinces, and apparently believes he knows all about the report of the Duncan commission; for he says it who talk about the British Empire cration could not be blamed for the have a fair conception of all that is in-

Mr. Calder is a somewhat hard- example, Rev. A. W. Banfield, address-Maritime situation." boiled gentleman, who probably knows ing the Rotary Club yesterday, saidmore about everything than most of us there are 25,000,000 blacks in Central know about anything. The sound of West Africa who are British subjects. his own voice is even more pleasing to These people range from the semihimself than to others. He would have civilized on the coast to those who are liked to hear that voice in the Commons Chamber at Ottawa; but certain without even a currency as a means of unappreciate Montreal electors failed to exchange, in the far interior. Another share his feeling—and he must be regretfully content with Young Men's was that there is a gap of 1,500 to 2,000 Canadian Clubs and such other patriotic miles between the extreme interior organizations as will sit at his feet. Christian mission from the West Coast

Mr. Calder was pleased, in the address delivered on Monday before the Young Men's Canadian Club of Montstations. torrent of his comin their hands. But Mr. Calder to leave us to our own evil devices.

of his countenance from us and decided report of the Royal Commission proves may yet make to a world of which at for any Maritime ills? Has he seen it? nothing at all, nor have any desire to If so, he could render us a great service learn. Each decade, however, will see If he has not seen it, why does he send broadcast an assertion of what it contains? Can it be that he was spooffing the Young Men's Canadian Club?

the influence of Western civilization. MAN'S IN FIFTY YEARS

But MAN'S IN FIFTY YEARS

By MRS. MILLE GADE CORSON, has been proven beyond question. Mr. by MRS. MILLE GADE CORSON, has been proven beyond question. Mr. by MRS. MILLE GADE CORSON, has been proven beyond question. Mr. by MRS. MILLE GADE CORSON, has been proven beyond question. When the Young Men's Canadian Club?

The capacity of some of them, at least, has been proven beyond question. Mr. by MRS. MILLE GADE CORSON, has been proven beyond question. When the Young Men's Canadian Club? more and more of them brought under the Young Men's Canadian Club? parents ran wild and naked in the bush, going to the mission school and

Mr. Calder will not be taken too one will perhaps have more significance for ordinary people than it has for his giant intelligence. largely depend upon the character of It is the economic problem the Marithe influences exerted upon the natives ladies" in all their time Provinces want solved, and when by the people of the western world. ways. They obeythe pledge of economic prosperity under Confederation is redeemed the people will even be willing to endure another speech from Mr. Calder—and will be such as to impress upon the night or go about that is saying a good deal.

COURTS, CHILDREN AND CHIL-

DREN'S WEEK. pendent Children in Ontario, and has had such valuable experience in childwelfare work, that his opinions are always heard with respect, if not agreed and with respect, if not agreed always heard with respect, if not agreed and should be a second and sho Superintendent of Neglected and De- Judge Ritchie is too well known and when entering ment. He said last week that in his view when a child commits an offence against the criminal law it is the par-Ritchie many more years of happiness.

All will unite to tender messages of stead, the modern maid and matron, too, endeavor to outshine men at their own games.

Ritchie many more years of happiness.

They play football, cricket and hoc-limits are now atmost forgotten. Instead, the modern maid and matron, too, endeavor to outshine men at their own games.

They play football, cricket and hoc-limits are now atmost forgotten. Instead, the modern maid and matron, too, endeavor to outshine men at their

that a sense of their responsibility should be pressed more strongly upon the minds of delinquent parents, and in this the courts are in a position to Golden trees and a silver sky!

Trees that are touched with a cop render most valuable assistance. Every neglected or dependent child permitted to indulge in wrong coures of conduct becomes hardened as the years pass, and society cannot afford to close its eyes to the probability that this child will grow up to be either a burden or a The Maritime Religious Education Council, comprising the Protestant churches of the provinces, is doing a valuable work in the interest of children. Its purpose is "to arouse and stimulate the interest of those on whom depends the Christian nurture and religious education of children and to cultivate co-operation between the home and the Sunday school." It aims by visitation of homes and in other ways The advance sale for the Dempseyto interest parents; and at the same Tunney debate amounts to nearly fourtime to improve the church facilities for religious education. For the pure for religious education. For the pur- There is no doubt a moral concealed poses of this Council this is Children's in this fact, but we refuse to hunt for week, and in the church organizations | it.—Yesterday's American. | The daily wage of the writer of the particular attention is being directed to child-welfare. The movement is as yet young, but it may easily develop for "Elegy Written in a Country into a great influence upon parents and Churchyard," which, it is alleged, it children alike, turning their thoughts took him seven years to write. to the higher things of life. There is no doubt a moral concealed in this fact. The moral is, "What of wide field for devoted service in it?"

What A Scare

OLD UNCLE HUBBARD GOES TO THE OIL TANK

"Gifts," by Zona Gale. Miss Gale began her career by writing exquisite poetry. Then she became absorbed in short stories which won her a large audience with magazine readers. Finally, her novels, "Birth" and "Miss Lulu Bett," gave her a high place in American letters. The former I consider one of the few big novels of this generation; but I do wish that Miss Gale would give us more of her graceful verse. She is essentially poet-her prose reveals that.

wish you joy of this and that, The new look from a path's quick turn,
The sunshine on the long home street The unexpected fern.

wish you power to draw delight Because a bough blows so, or so; To love to walk within the wind, Or in the thick slow snow.

I wish you joy of everything, Of all the living singing lands, And of the smiling, sleeping sky That almost understands.

Take these, my friend, and then I wish A magic for you. Here's a part— The blessedness of being near The wild, glad, aching, human heart. Linen Department 18 ins. Linen Finish Huck Towelling Such as the Domestic Science pupils have been looking for.

A Timely Fall Offering of HOSIERY

Just the opportunity and a very proper time to replenish your hose supply.

High Grade Pure Silk and Wool Hose, made of finest yarns, in pleasing two-tone effects. Every pair have reinforced heels, soles, toes and tops to make them wear longer, and the newest and most preferred shades, besides black and white. All

On sale tomorrow.

by stamps on the parcel and I am en-closing herewith the 25 cents. Signed, John M. Hayes, C. N. R. constable.

THE CRAWL STROKE

F. A. Dykeman & Co.

Queer Quirks of Nature

MYSTERIOUS DENIZEN OF THE BAG-WORM

By AUSTIN H. CLARK ALL too familiar objects in the eastern part of the country are the are enormous distances between the cases of the common bag-worm (left) which you see hanging on many different kinds of trees and shrubs. But the are moving farther inland, and more cases carefully you will see some of the movement and more of the people are being them caterpillar (second figure) which pro tion. As yet Africa, he says, is a giant jects, from them. All caterpillars are the young either who has lain dormant; but who is now beginning to feel the pulsing of life in of moths or butterflies. Here is shown toes and finger tips, and is beginning to the young of a singularly interesting The females (smaller type shown), selves over the plant.

BAG-WORMS AND MOTH

sit up and take notice. Half a dozen European countries are interested in Africa, and because of the immense richness of its natural resources each richness of its natural resources each the females of any way of getting out the females of any way of getting out spring the little caterpillars make their maries, the list just about evens up. the females of any way of getting out spring the little caterpillars make their maries, the list just about evens up

Timely Views On World Topics

eventually becoming gold medalists at I modern girl and then I wonder riously, even in Montreal. His re- Oxford. Undoubtedly some of the what her type will develop into, and tribes are lacking in intelligence, but what her position will be relative to out of that vast welter of tribes in that man in, say 1976. The British Empire includes much of the best of African territory, and it or smoke, powder may be hoped that British influences or paint, dance all minds of these black citizens the best unchaperoned. long frocks, great continent will presently emerge a civilization the quality of which will largely depend upon the character of

Mr. J. J. Kelso has been so long the Ritchie on his eighty-third birthday. knew their place MRS. C. CORSON

trymen in the House of Commons; they are holding honored places in the legal world, in medicine and surgery

Is it not possible, then, that in fifty years or so women will do even bet-ter? I do not think that they can do but there is unlimited scope for them ing day by day. They do not look much better in swimming, run against the criminal law it is the paragraph and brought before the magistrate. Such a policy, pursued for a few years he of Six Austen Chamberlain who is a policy, pursued for a few years he of Six Austen Chamberlain who is a policy. and brought before the magistrate. Such a policy, pursued for a few years, he believes would lead to better care and training of children, and greater safety

By way of making pleasant the task that the world in general is amazed. Flying and parachuting are looked upon by them as fine sport. Long-distance swimming as an everyday octance swimming as an everyday octance with such success.

FARMER received a crate containing some fowls. He wrote to the sender, informing him that the tance swimming as an everyday octance with such success. to life and property. He argues that party convention at Scarborough has currence, and motor-cycling and row-it is generally the absence of proper unanimously adopted a resolution which parental control and direction that calls for the termination of the trade parental control and direction that calls for the termination of the trade agreement with Russia, the closing of undoubtedly true.

There will always be, however, under present social conditions, parents and the expulsion of all Soviet representatives. Sir Austen, however, is not tatives. Sir Austen, however, is not tatives. Sir Austen, however, is not tatives. who are utterly unfitted to give proper easily perturbed. He will meet M. will be doing fifty years ahead. While women have been surpassing six!"

which Mr. Kelso has made so successful in Ontario. It is neverthheless true Odds and Ends there is in British ideals.

per hue, Sprinkle again with a rich old bronze, which that winds and sings and similar forms of sport, because there must be a limit to physical strength,

And the flying leaves like a shower of in all else. Women realize nowadays gold,
And the south-bound birds, and that there is room for them at the copy when they get there, and this fact has their farewell song;

The laugh in the wind, and the sob

And flaunt their riches-but to die "What Of It?"

up to men in the way they used to.
Instead, they are contemplating them merely as rivals.

I do not think this fact to any extent, but I feel that they will be forced to do so as time goes on. There is a distinct danard a good one. He shaves Mussolini and a good one. He shaves Mussolini But

IT WAS in a country store in Arkansas. A one-gallus customer drifted in. "Gimme a nickel's worth of asafetida." The clerk poured some asseftida in a paper bag and pushed it across the counter.

"Charge it," drawled the customer. "What's your name?" asked the clerk.

"Honeyfunkel."

solini talks little. In the four years been doing his duty by the Duce, Rossi says Mussolini has never spoken a word to him. . . Which is, after all, an illuminating bit of history. Mussolini is, for all his superman qualities, pretty much like the rest of us. He finds it utterly impossible to get a word in edgewise while his barber is talking.

That's right. And others won't either.

IT IS a violation of the law to put out poison and it ought to be a violation to put it into healthy bodies in the shape of various serums being exploited.

"Take it," said the clerk. "I wouldn't write asafetida and Honeyunkel for five cents."

"I am-er-going to ask you an im-"What I want to ask you is this," For God's sake, man turn around and for his own job. Thus is illustrated the old records and creating fresh ones, men have stood still, and I would adhitched to a ration wagon, and he men have stood still, and I would advise them to get a real push on if they do not want to take second place for drove right through the American drove right through the American Women are now holding high-salaried positions in the city; they are representing thousands of their couna few yards when an artilleryman jumped out of a listening post and began signalling him with both hands.

"What's the matter?" shouted the > "Hush!" said the artilleryman in a Open Saturday Night till 10.

ELECTRIC HEATER and fool the janitor. "Electrically at Your Service." The Webb Electric Co.,

IS THIS NEWS? NEW YORK-Dr. Winifred Stoner, speaking at the Exposition of Women's Arts and Industries here, went IF YOU put one hundred dollars in way out of the bags and spread themin the increasing glorification of wom-en and that it may bring on a war of Cynics in the aud-

> STRANGE INDEED. ROME-Domenico Rossi is a barber, at 11 o'clock!

fore we go any farther. What are you

"Ethel," ho-said, as they were "Oh, neither," replied the bride, "just taking a moonlight stroll one evening, make me the treasurer."—Ulk, Berlin.

"Now dear," said the bridegroom, "let's have an understanding be-HE had called on her twice a week going to be, the president of the house-hold or the vice-president?"

Because it's clean.

cooking results.

coal or gas.

overheat the kitchen.

Because it's economi-

Because it saves time.

Because it gives better

Because it will not

Because it regulates it-

Because it's better than

Because it's the only

Because the prices are

Ask for a demonstra-

McClary's

221 - 223 PRINCE WILLIAM STREET

Saint John, N. B.

stove made with the

SPEEDIRON element.

Baltimore Sun "Oh, George!" she exclaimed, "this low and agonized whisper. "You're initiative. So she entered the primary so sudden. Why I—" headed straight for the German lines. and beat him out of the nomination where I want to ask you is this?"

Use a McClary

SPEEDIRON

ELECTRIC STOVE

PEP IN POLITICS.

loyalty to him. He also has in mind ter and 25 cents to cover cost. the thought that unless he keeps them post office they informed me that if happy they may start scrambling to get would cost 80 cents to register it and his own job away from his. And may-therefore I took the liberty of insuring be they will do it, anyhow. What a it. Cost of insurance was covered

COURTEOUS C.N.R. OFFICIALS

imbued his whole force with the idea

Sir Henry Thornton seems to have peg train handed me a parcel to regis- crawl."

Just Fun HEADLINE says: "Count Slam's Wife Back in Society." Well, that's one way for a nobleman to get his wife into society. NOTE ON SAVINGS

YOU put one hundred dollars in that to get anywhere with the Candian National Railways, the motto adian National Railways, the motto must be service first. Some time ago swim the English Channel. There are indications that it may become a family the result of the Financial Post staff, a member of the Financial Post st it won't do you much good.

JACK: "Why did you call this a map of the World? It looks like photograph of your sweetheart."
Clarence: "It is. The dear girl is office was closed. The C. N. R. constable, John M. Hayes, was approachable to taking the frequency with which the station where the Long Lac cuttoffice was closed. The C. N. R. constable, John M. Hayes, was approachable to taking the frequency with which the champel is being swum, together with the stable, John M. Hayes, was approached. He was quite agreeable to taking the parcel and mailing it on the east-bound train. It was well stamped, but as a margin of safety, the officer agreed that the parcel be registered stroke. It is interesting to set this cost. The parcel reached the Financial Post office O. K. and a few his 'natural' motions represent perfections. MOONBEAMS

Take a boy and a girl, add a also applesauce, throw in a kiss.

Cool with an icy stare. SCANDAL PIE Take a rumor—let it simmer—add a few embellishments—some assorted adjectives - and stir

GUEST-I suppose I can sit he until I starve?

Waiter-Hardly that, sir! We close POLICE Sergeant: I think we've found your missing wife.
Joseph Peck: What does she say?
"Nothing." "That's not my wife!"-Answers,

THE smartest person is not the one who is quickest to see through a thing; it's the one who is quickest to see a thing through.

TRUE sportsmen will not kill more than the law's allowance of game. That's right. And others won't

Other Views

Because the clerk of one of Wisconsin's counties fired Miss Selma Fjelstad about politics. He told her she lacked

SPECIAL SALE =of= Squares

ancial Post office O.K., and a few days later the following letter was received: "A passenger on the Winnipeg train handed was a varied to the primitive man, and that primiti

Axminster and Wilton Squares at Greatly Reduced Prices.

Sizes 3×3 1-2 and 3×4 . A. O. SKINNER

58 KING STREET

7% that Grows Assets 5 to 1

The security behind the Cumulative Participating Preferred Stock of Eastern Coal Docks, Ltd., is most unusual.

Fixed Assets can be shown five times the amount of this stock issue.

Net Earnings rate based on past performance, actually four times the 7 p. c. Preferred Dividend.

Which under the special conditions of Participation and Common Stock bonus, earns your money—on past record alone —a total of 13 1-2 p. c. This company owns unmatchable unloading advantages accounting in marked degree for these earnings. Further dockage development will make its position even better which will result in further income to you through your Common Stock bonus. Ask full facts from Eastern Coal Docks, Ltd.

George McAvity Blizard, Pres. 151 Prince William Street

