DARTMOUTH A.A.A. WANTS LOWERING OF RESIDENCE CLAUSE BARS

M. P. B. ANNUAL TO DEAL WITH MATTER TODAY

South End League Are Seeking Settlement Of Dispute

A RESOLUTION, sponsored by the Dartmouth A. A. A., declaring for the rescinding of the five-months' residence clause for clubs in the amateur union is probably one of the chief items of business coming before the annual meeting of the M. P. B. of the A. A. U. of C. in Halifax today. Local clubs have received notification of the intention of the Dartmouth people to move this resolution and the debate on it should furnish some interesting passages. The main local interest centres on a question put forward by the South End Improvement League of this city which wants to know definitely from the governing body if two senior sanctions for baseball leagues can be granted in this city. Decisions on these two matters, therefore, are awaited with interest here. If the residence clause bars are lowered, easier restrictions on imports will mean changes in line-ups on the various hockey teams this year. A decision granting the South End a senior sanction also will mean a re-alignment for next year here.

DOYLE BOOM ON.

Interest also is aroused over the election of officers. It is known that Mr. Millie, present president, is faced with strong opposition and that there has been a quiet but powerful boom on the last few weeks in favor of "Sammy" Doyle, the E. E. I. vice-president. There is a growing feeling also that the presidency should be held for one term only and that a passing around of the honor would help the amateur cause materially. The appointments to the important registration committees also will be watched with interest.

Those who left last evening for Halifax to represent Saint John clubs include the following: Y. M. C. I., W. E. Striding, Trojans A. C., W. Carey, St. Peter's, J. Cleary, St. John's Baptist, Frank Elliott, Y. M. C. A., H. Hutton, South End, L. L. H. W. Stubbs, Water Department, F. Thurston. St. Roses will be represented in Halifax by "Bunker" Murphy, while A. T. Snodgrass, now in Halifax, also will represent the Water Department. Arrangements have been made to have other Saint John clubs represented at the meeting. Proper credentials will be completed today.

M'Innis Was Pawn Moved By M'Kechie In Nick of Time For Pittsburgh's Great Win

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Oct. 16.—A star of the bygone years came to hover over Pittsburgh in its hour of greatest darkness, and by its brilliance drew about it several little planets which for a time had been obscured by baseball's "great smoke."

For the Pirates of Pittsburgh today are champions of the world once again, after 16 long years, and all of them are stars of magnitude, with the central planet carrying the grand old name of McInnis.

Great figures were many in the Pirates' epoch-making drive that cut down even the mighty Walter Johnson at the last. Cuyler's double won the deciding game after Kremer's relief hurling saved it, but the greatest guiding influence of all was that of the old first baseman of the old Athletics, the team mate of Jack Barry, Eddie Collins, and Frank Baker, a man who had played behind the superb Jack Coombs, the peerless Chief Bender, and the remarkable Eddie Plank.

He had faced the cleverest of box men, he had pitted his efforts against the best hitters of modern times. He had carried through campaigns on battlefields throughout the country. But it was not until the fifth game that he fell. McInnis, Pirate captain, turned to McInnis and sent him out upon the field before a hostile throng in Washington to claim the title, which was fast slipping from his grasp. Washington had won three games, and Pittsburgh one.

When McInnis went out to first base he took confidence with him. From then the Pirate team was reformed. The old hand, stationed at the first corner of that youthful infield, worked marvels. There was nothing sensational about his play, but the youths soon learned that a throw in the general direction of first base was a put-out. When trouble threatened there came the firm words of McInnis across the field of play. When a moonshiner faltered, the first baseman was at his side urging him on.

"Stuff," cannot be considered the hero of Pittsburgh's victory, but he was the pawn that McInnis moved in the nick of time, when all other pieces had failed.

Washington's games were won by pitching; Pittsburgh's by hitting. The bats of the Pirates had been headed as the most potent in the National league, but Johnson twice made them look like toothpicks. Their holders withdrew from the plate when the tall Kansas shot his fast one across. Two great failures stood out in the series—Roger Peckinpaugh, Washington shortstop, and Stanley Coveleskie, the Senator pitcher, who won three games from Brooklyn as a member of the Cleveland staff in the world series of 1920.

Peckinpaugh, recently voted the most valuable player to his team in the American League, broke all records for errors, having eight misplays charged against him. In the 1921 classic, playing for the Yankees, he allowed a Giant hit to trickle through his legs, in the deciding game, the bobble scoring the winning run. Records were broken thick and fast in the pirates world series battle with Washington. The most notable were

MAX CAREY IS LEADING BATTER FOR BIG SERIES

Veteran Is Followed by J. Harris, Rice, Smith And Traynor

MAX CAREY leads all the batters in the world series by his sensational work at bat yesterday, collecting four hits out of five times up and giving him an average of .458 for the series. "Joe" Harris, the hard-hitting Senator's outfielder, could not keep pace with the veteran and dropped back to .440 for second place. Sam Rice is in third place with .363, while Earl Smith is fourth with .353, closely followed by "Pie" Traynor with .346.

The following shows the details of the performance at bat and in the field of the players who participated in the world series, the figures including all seven games. In this table, the first column shows the batting averages, and the second column the fielding averages:

Moore's high fly and their decisive rally came in the eighth, after a wild throw to second by the veteran shortstop with a third out in sight that would have prevented any scoring.

PECKINPAUGH'S HOMER.

But for that bad toss to Harris on Carey's grounder, Peckinpaugh might have been the hero instead of the "ghost" of the final game, for in the first half of the eighth he had driven the ball over the barrier in front of the scoreboard for a home run that put the Senators into a 7-6 lead.

Peck's error in the seventh was followed by Carey's second double and a triple by Traynor, who was thrown out at the plate trying to stretch his hit to a homer.

Two were out in the eighth before the Pirates got in motion again on a double by Earl Smith. This was the signal for a rush of Pittsburgh reserves, Yde replacing Smith on the bases and Biegbe going to bat for Kremer. There was a terrific roar as Yide's two-base smash scored Yde with the tying run and the din continued as Moore

Other new marks follow:
Twelve one base hits by Sam Rice, breaking mark of nine set by J. Schilling of Pittsburgh in 1903, and equaled later by four others.
Max Carey hit three times by pitcher, setting a new record, also tying record of four hits in single game set by Tommy Leach in 1903, and equaled later by a dozen others.

Stan Harris accepting thirteen chances in field in fourth game, equalling record made by Claude Ritchey of Pittsburgh, in 1903.

Yesterday's battle was expected to be a duel between the two moonshiners, who had each won two games in the series, with Johnson and Aldridge seeking the victory that would give either imperishable fame and glory. But instead it turned out to be a free slugging drama. Aldridge, wild and erratic, passed out of the picture in the first inning after issuing three passes, and making two wild pitches, while Johnson was battered for 15 hits and nearly always in trouble. The "Big Train" had held the slugging Buccaneers to one run and 11 hits in his first two games, but he had nothing with which to check his opponents today. His greatest speed held no terrors for the Pirates and his curves had no baffling stop on them.

DOUBLE MADE OFF HIM.

Morrison, temporarily checking the Senators after relieving Aldridge, was withdrawn for a pinch runner for Joe Harris had got him for a double and driven in two runs in the fourth. Kremer, back after a day's rest, and Oldham, twirling in the ninth, were the final choices and the most effective ones, permitting only one safe blow, Peck's homer, in a stretch of five innings and holding Washington at bay while the Pirate bats were rampant.

MISPLAYS DAMAGING.

It was apparent from the start that Johnson faced trouble, but he might have pulled out the game had it not been for the damaging misplays charged against him. In the 1921 classic, playing for the Yankees, he allowed a Giant hit to trickle through his legs, in the deciding game, the bobble scoring the winning run. Records were broken thick and fast in the pirates world series battle with Washington. The most notable were

Washington Manager Considers Criticism Is Reflection on Walter

SAYS SENTIMENT PLAYED NO PART IN SELECTION

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—Denying that he had pitched Walter Johnson in the final world series game at Pittsburgh yesterday, for "sentimental reasons," Bucky Harris, manager of the Washington Senators, declared on his return here early today, that he considered the criticism of his pitching selection by President Ben Johnson, of the American League, as a "reflection" on the Washington pitcher.

Harris' statement was made in reply to a telegram sent him by Johnson from Chicago, in which the league president tempered his congratulations for a "game fight" with the assertion that Washington lost the series "because of sentimental reasons" in pitching Johnson.

"Sentiment played absolutely no part in my decision to pitch Johnson," Harris declared, in his statement. "I pitched wonderful ball. I regard it as reflection on Walter Johnson to have such a thing said of him. President Johnson's remarks, if his telegram has been correctly quoted, are gratuitous and would have been better left unsaid."

The Washington manager said he had no allbills to offer for the loss of the final game, and the series.

"The breaks were somewhat against us," he added. "Our team went down fighting and I feel that we will be in the thick of it next year. We are not dismayed by the decision."

There is this also to say about Ben Johnson's remarks, if true. If anyone lost the series, it was not Walter Johnson, who really put them in the fight by two magnificent victories. If anyone is looking for a goat, it seems to us that Peck is the man—not Walter Johnson.—Sport Ed's note.

Badminton

The Saint John Badminton Association which was organized last spring held its first meeting of the season in St. Andrew's church rooms last night with Miss Bessie Dawson, president, in the chair and ten of the city clubs represented. It is hoped to have all the badminton clubs of the city in affiliation with the association, which is aiming to arrange for play between members of the different clubs. The association will have charge of the city tournament later in the season.

ALL COMERS' MATCH.

The All Comers' Match in connection with the P. F. R. A. here will be held on the ranges Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. It will be shot over 200, 600 and 900 yards. A match open to all cadets in the city will be held at 3 p. m.
