

RECENT WEDDINGS

Bater-Duffley.
The marriage of Miss Josephine Lucy Duffley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Duffley, of Golden Grove, to Walter Penwick Bater, of French Village, was solemnized on Oct. 4 at St. James' church rectory in Broad street by Rev. H. A. Cody. The bride and groom were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Breen. Mrs. Breen is a sister of the groom and Mr. Breen gave the bride in marriage. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Bater left by automobile for French Village, where Mr. Bater is a prosperous farmer, and where they will make their home. Many friends unite to wish them all happiness.

Heenan-Richard.
Miss Mary Emilie Richard of Moncton, and John A. Heenan of St. John, were married in Moncton on Tuesday by Very Rev. Dean A. Robitshaw, uncle of the bride. Dr. Yvon Gaudet and Thomas Conway were witnesses. Mr. and Mrs. Heenan will reside in Moncton.

RECENT DEATHS

Mrs. L. R. Thompson.
The death of Mrs. L. R. Thompson occurred suddenly at the residence of her sister, Mrs. S. N. Sanction, yesterday, and will be heard of with great regret by many friends. Mrs. Thompson is survived by her mother, Mrs. G. F. Harding, of this city, four brothers, Ernest, Parker and Harry, in the west, and W. L. Harding, in St. John, and by two sisters, Mrs. Sanction, of this city, and Mrs. F. H. Barr, who recently went to New York. The funeral will be held on Saturday from the residence of Mrs. Sanction, 112 Wentworth street.

ST. JOHN LADIES AT W.C.T.U. CONVENTION

Woodstock, N. B., Oct. 5.—The W. C. T. U. of New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island are holding their sixteenth annual session here in the Methodist Church. On Wednesday morning a valuable paper of "Y" work by Mrs. Card of Dorchester was read by Mrs. Clarke. A vote of thanks was ordered sent to Mrs. Card. Mrs. Conroy gave a Bible reading at the noon-tide hour.

At Wednesday afternoon's session devotional exercises were led by Mrs. Robertson of St. John. A paper on child welfare was read by Mrs. London and it was decided to have it printed and distributed. Mrs. Griffiths nicely sang "The Bird With a Broken Wing." Greetings were brought to the convention from the Woodstock Women's Institute by Mrs. Dalling and from the local union by Mrs. Mutch and a letter of greetings and good wishes from the dominion president, Mrs. S. R. Wright, was read by Mrs. Perry. Mrs. McWha made reply.

St. John delegates at the meetings are Mrs. Hope Thompson, Mrs. Mary Seymour, Mrs. H. T. Bonnell, Mrs. A. H. Wright, Mrs. E. Scoll, Mrs. I. M. Hoare, Mrs. W. H. Humphrey, Mrs. J. D. Sealey. Edenville is represented by Mrs. O. D. Hanson, Mrs. J. W. Stevens and Mrs. A. L. Bonnell.

ST. JAMES' W. A.
The senior branch of the W. A. of St. James' church held its first meeting of the season on Tuesday evening at the home of the honorary president, Mrs. H. A. Cody, with the president, Mrs. C. H. Nixon, in the chair. There were many members present and one new member was welcomed. The treasurer's report was satisfactory. The delegate to the diocesan annual meeting, Mrs. J. C. Kier, read an excellent report of the meetings in April. Plans were made for the season's work. The branch intends to continue the mission study in the coming season. The members displayed much interest in taking up the work once more.

LIVED IN POVERTY, DIED WITH $10,000

New York Man Who was Buried in "Charity" Grave Left Estate to Son.

New York, Oct. 5.—For five years Louis Fields, seventy-two, worked for $15 a week in a Salvation Army brick-a-brack shop at number 517 West 74th street. He lived alone in a scantily furnished rear room at number 498 West 80th street.

He died last week in Bellevue Hospital of pneumonia. The Salvation Army buried him in a "charity" grave at Mount Olivet. Today it developed he was worth $10,000. His bank book showed a balance of $4,700, and investigation disclosed $2,000 in Liberty bonds and realty in the Bronx valued at $3,300.

All the property was willed to an only son, Allan, whom the father had not seen in seven years. The Salvation Army is trying to find him. During the war he was said to have been employed in a government chemical plant somewhere on Long Island.

SON DEAD, ENDS HER LIFE.

Mother Inhales Gas After Vigil Beside Body.

New York, Oct. 4.—Mrs. Marie Rogers, fifty-two, killed herself by inhaling gas in the kitchen of her home, at 681 West 183rd street, immediately below a room in which the body of her son, Harry E. Rogers, Jr., was awaiting burial services. The son died on Friday. Mrs. Rogers had kept an all-night vigil.

The husband said Mrs. Rogers and the son, their only child, had been inseparable, and that she had been at his bedside constantly during his long illness.
