TO PRESENT IT IN SUSSEX "The Lass of Limerick Town," a bright Irish opera in two acts, which was recently presented at Patrick's Hall, West St. John; St. Peter's Hall, North end; and St. Vincent's Auditorium, under the auspices of the Church of the Assumption Dramatic Club, will be staged at the Opera House in Sussex next Monday evening. The cast and orchestra will leave on Monday afternoon in automobiles and will return home the following day. The opera is to be presented for the benefit of Rev. Joseph McDermott's church fund.

PRESENTATIONS

After the repetition of the play "Miss Fearless," which was given by the Residence Club of the Y. W. C. A. under the auspices of the Philathea Club of German street Baptist church last night, the members of the club returned to the Y. W. C. A. building in King street and spent a delightful social hour. A which was purchased with the proceeds of the play was presented to the institution by the girls. Mrs. John McAvity, president of the Y. W. C. A., accepted the instrument on behalf of the board and placed upon it the first record. Mrs. W. H. Lugadin, convener of the house committee, and Mrs. J. D. Hunter, convener of the girls' work committee, were also present. On behalf of the girls of the residence, Miss Sellers, the house superintendent, presented to Miss Tapscott, the retiring secretary, a beautiful ivory clock, with the best wishes of the club. A most delightful evening was spent.

ONE ON THE CAPTAIN

A good one is being told on one of the deep water captains who was in this port recently. He complained that some lobsters cooked by his chef were unusually tough. A local friend said they were not cooked properly and offered to bring him some done right. When the captain had eaten he pronounced the lobsters the best he had ever tasted.

Just then he noticed the pliers which were placed in the crushing claws of the lobster while in captivity and he asked why they were there. He was informed by his friend that they were put in while cooking to allow only a certain amount of steam to escape, thus making the meat tender. He swallowed the story and no doubt has issued instructions accordingly to his chef.

REV. JAS. CRISP DEAD IN ALMA

Clergyman Who Numbered Many Friends.

Held Carmarthen Street and Zion Pastorates—A Strong Temperance Worker and Advocate of New Brunswick for Immigrants.

News of the death of Rev. James Crisp, for many years a resident of St. John, reached the city this morning and was heard with deep regret by a large circle of friends. Death took place in Alma, Alberta county, early this morning after a brief illness.

Rev. Mr. Crisp was born in Norwich, England, nearly seventy-two years ago and was ordained there. He came to Canada in 1872 and after occupying pulpits at various places throughout New Brunswick, came to St. John about twenty years ago as pastor of Carmarthen street Methodist church. From there he transferred to Zion Methodist church, with which he was identified for about five years. After leaving the city he went to Sunny Brae and from there to Alma, in which charge he was ministering until just before his death.

Mr. Crisp is survived by his wife, two sons and three daughters. The sons are Fred G. Crisp, of St. Martin's, and Rev. Spencer Crisp, of Lindsay, Carleton county, and his daughters are Miss Mary, at home, and Mrs. W. R. Geldart and Mrs. Nanaton Geldart, both of Coverdale, Rev. R. S. Crisp, of Douglas avenue, is his only brother. The funeral will take place at Salisbury, probably on Monday.

While in the city, Rev. Mr. Crisp was well known and held the high esteem of a great many friends. He was actively identified with the temperance movement and contributed many articles on the subject to the newspapers and periodicals of the day. He was also keenly interested in agriculture and during his stay in the various county places throughout the province he always encouraged the people to adopt better methods of land cultivation. He regarded New Brunswick the finest part of Canada for farm settlers and in this connection published a book on New Brunswick as a field for immigrants, which had a wide circulation in the old country.

A particularly broad-minded man, he was ever ready to associate himself with any good cause and in this way he endeared himself to the hearts of many people.

HUNDRED CHICKENS AND 25 HENS DIE IN ROTHESAY FIRE

Fire which started in a brooder of the hen-house owned by Harold G. Ellis of the firm of J. M. Robinson & Son, at his Rothsay home, completely destroyed the structure, with 100 chickens and twenty-five hens. The fire was first noticed about 5 o'clock and Mr. Ellis and others in the house rushed out to extinguish it. Neighbors and some of the boys from Rothsay School soon were on the scene and gave their assistance. The great difficulty was the lack of water but with bucket brigades and the aid of the fire was confined to the hen-house and did not touch the barn or residence.

Mr. Ellis, who asked about the fire this morning said that it must have started from a brooder in which he had about seventy chickens, which were kept warm by an oil lamp. Of his very fine henner Mr. Ellis has left about forty chickens and thirty-five hens and he estimated the total loss at about $1,000 which is half covered by insurance.

CITY LEAGUE

A practice game which was scheduled to be played last evening between St. Peter's senior ball team and the Wolves of the Intermediate league was called off on account of the cold weather. This afternoon the team will have practice for the opening of the league, which is to take place next Tuesday afternoon. An effort is being made to secure the services of a band for the opening game. Arrangements have also been completed to play the Commercial team on the last night of the season on the evening of May 24, and diamond on the evening of May 24.

A BRIDGE AT OTTAWA

Ottawa Journal.—Mrs. Jacob Smith entertained at a delightful bridge yesterday afternoon at Murphy-Gambell's tea-rooms, in honor of Mrs. D. C. F. Ellis of Winnipeg and Mrs. Lewis of St. John, N. B. Mrs. J. F. White and Mrs. H. McLeannan won the prizes. Mrs. R. W. Wignmore and Mrs. H. H. Glasmasner presided at the tea table, which was attractively centred with apple blossoms and lilacs.

May Showers for June Brides

Those dear girl friends who will be married in June are not thinking about jewels. They are dreaming now of the homes which will soon be theirs—and you can make their dreams of happiness come true by making your pre-nuptial gifts worth while, by adding something to the love nests which are uppermost in the minds of all prospective brides. What treasure compares with a cedar chest, a book-holder, writing desk, a tea wagon, a lamp, a telephone set, some beautiful chair, or other piece of furniture?

To the home loving woman there's nothing more acceptable than an article which will make her home more artistic.

Might we show what we have in this direction?
