RECENT DEATHS

Relatives in this city were shocked by a telegram received by Fred E. Hanington yesterday announcing the death of his brother, Blois C. Hanington, D.D.S., of Lansdowne, Pennsylvania, after a brief illness of pneumonia. Dr. Hanington had a host of friends in St. John. His old home, and the news of his death will be read with keen regret. He was always a hearty and welcome on his visits here. A man of wide reading, Dr. Hanington was a particularly interesting conversationalist. He was a son of Thomas B. Hanington, formerly postmaster of St. John. Other relatives surviving are his daughter, Mrs. Thomas Wright, of Lansdowne; his brother, F. E. Hanington, of St. John, and four sisters, Mrs. James Manning and Mrs. H. C. Wetmore, of St. John; Miss Gertrude M. Hanington, of Wilton, New Hampshire, and Mrs. George A. Harper, of Winnipeg.

The many friends of Lloyd H. P. Anthony, will be very sorry to learn of his death, which occurred yesterday morning at the residence of his sister, Mrs. J. Fred Belyea, 100 Middle street, West St. John. The late Mr. Anthony had been in ill health for the last few years, but on Friday he contracted influenza which, in conjunction with his other illness, soon caused his death. He was the twenty-ninth year of his age. He was a member of the Old Fellows and Rebecca Lodges, and was also a member of the International Freight Checkers' Union. He leaves behind him his mother, Mrs. Henry Anthony, of Red Head, two sisters, Mrs. J. Fred Belyea and Mrs. E. L. Stevens, also three brothers, J. F. William Ope and Leslie H. all of Red Head. The funeral will take place on Tuesday at 3 o'clock from the residence of his sister.

After an illness of five months, the death of Mrs. James Murray, widow of Pilot James Murray, of this city, occurred on Sunday afternoon at the residence of her son-in-law, Edward S. Treccart. She is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Edward S. Treccart, one step-daughter, Mrs. Edward Shortis, and two step-sons, Edward Murray and Pilot William Murray, all of this city.

The death occurred on Sunday evening at his parents' residence, Prospect Point, after a short illness of pneumonia, of Thomas, son of Richard and Margaret Walsh. He leaves behind his parents, six brothers and two sisters to mourn. His brothers are James, Richard, Joseph, Clement, Harold and William and the sisters are Frances and Gertrude, all at home. The arrangements for the funeral have not yet been completed.

John K. Ring, a life long resident of West St. John, and who was identified with the ship-building industry here when it was at its height, passed away yesterday at the home of his son, Herbert J. Ring, 110 Portland street. Mr. Ring had been ill a long time. He was born twenty-five years ago. He is survived by his wife, five sons, four daughters, four

How SPIRIT MESSAGES from her husband ruled the life of America's Greatest Poetess

Ella Wheeler Wilcox

An Amazing Series of Letters Now To Be Published for the First Time

IN these letters to her brother, written during the last two years of her life, the famous writer describes the strange communications she says she received from Robert M. Wilcox, her husband who died in 1916.

Time and again she wrote of absolute proof she received of her husband's immortality.

Beginning Sunday, February 24th, these letters will appear exclusively in

On the battlefield of France, she declared:

"My intense desire for speech with my beloved burned the path to him and set wires working."

He revealed to her how those in the next plane subsist on ether—about automatic writing, mental wireless and ethereal moving pictures.
