Principles! CONDEMN SPEEDING ON THE HIGHWAYS

To forego all desire to accumulate money or chattels for personal advantage.

To live decently, to have sufficient food, clothes, and shelter, but to ask no reward in this life.

To dedicate their lives solely to the work of helping others, and bringing them to Christ.

To spend their lives in consecrated ministry to the physical and spiritual needs of the poor, hopeless, needy, fallen, and stricken.

THESE are the principles that govern the lives of the Salvation Army Officers.

"BY their deeds ye shall know them."

TRAGEDY DURING WALK.
Young Man Shot Woman and Killed Himself.

Norwalk, Conn., May 5—Harold Guiles, twenty-one, shot Mrs. Addie Morrill, thirty-five, while they were walking together, and then turned the revolver on himself. Guiles will die but the woman may recover, surgeons say.

With the couple at the time was Mrs. Morrill's four-year-old son. According to the police, the woman had been living apart from her husband for some time, but he was about to return and take his wife away on a trip. The boy told the police that his mother told Guiles she would not write to him, and the shooting followed.

TICKET DEALER FINED.

Atlanta, Georgia, May 5—Charged with profiteering in opera tickets, R. B. Rand was fined $26 in the Recorder's Court. The court also ordered him to return to all purchasers of the tickets the money received by him in excess of the regular prices. Mr. Rand said that he was acting merely as an agent for persons wishing to dispose of one or more pairs of their season ticket sets, and that he was given instructions to get a certain price for each ticket sold, which, it was found, was much more than the regular price.

RECTOR AND WIFE SURPRISED.

Rev. Canon and Mrs. G. A. Kuhring were most delightfully surprised last evening when about twenty-four of the members of Canon Kuhring's Bible class called upon them and set about arranging a pleasant party. Games and music were the order of proceedings for some time and then dainty refreshments were served. Mrs. Kuhring was presented a beautiful bouquet of flowers and a silver pencil was quietly slipped into Canon Kuhring's hand.

The Superiority Of POST TOASTIES

among corn flakes is no accident.

Those who enjoy these top-notch corn flakes must remember they are not one of those food fads formed one day and exploited to the public the next.

Toasties are the result of scientific, painstaking development by master food makers.

You realize this fact when you compare them with imitations; not only taste but appearance tells—

Post Toasties Are The Best Of Corn Foods
