IN GREAT BRITAIN.
The British food controller has ordered two meatless days weekly, in houses as well as hotels. No meat shall be served at any breakfast and allowances of meat generally will be greatly reduced.

The House of Lords by 132 to 42 votes inserted an amendment in the Bill for the regulation of the representation of the people in the House of Commons.

At the labor party conference at Nottingham, Leamington, Jan. 20, a resolution was adopted by the delegates, urging a revolution in Great Britain. The resolution was adopted by a vote of 1,000 to 500.

Ball Player Killed.
Columbus, Ohio, Jan. 20.—Alfred H. Parlee, 43, once a well-known baseball pitcher, was killed last night when he fell downstairs at his home here. His neck was broken. He was known as "Napoleon" Parlee by baseball fans. He pitched for Newark in the old Eastern League.
