

Still Another Sufferer Cured

Selby Camel, St. Mary's Bay, Testifies to the Great Good Derived from A. I. C.

"I was a sufferer for 18 months with Indigestion. I could not keep my food down in my stomach. I took two pint bottles of A. I. C. and it made a complete cure of me. I tried several remedies and a number of doctors, but A. I. C. was the only remedy I could get. Any body suffering from Indigestion do not be afraid to try Arctic Indigestion Cure."

WAR NEWS

Russians Hold Back Teutons

Petrograd, July 15.—The offensive near Stobychwa, northeast of Kovel, in an attempt to drive the Russians from the left bank of the Stokod River, has failed, according to a statement given out last night by the War Office. The intensity of the fighting on the Stripa River lessened.

Still Fighting At Verdun

Paris, July 15.—A violent artillery duel continues in the Fleury sector, the War Office announced today. A German attack on a trench northeast of Avocourt redoubt was repulsed, and German attempts to undertake attacks in the Apremont forest were checked by curtain fire.

London Exultant

London, July 15.—The new British advance on the Western front provides the theme for exultant comment in the morning papers. The situation of the German army is very critical, declares the Telegraph. The Daily News says: "The comparative ease with which the second lines have been forced into countenance to the belief that they were not as strong as the first lines undoubtedly were. It may be that the worst and the heaviest task was achieved with the carrying of the first lines, which the Germans are said to have held to be impregnable."

British Attack Was Surprise

London, July 15.—On the British front in France, at the end of a long day's unbroken struggle, the indications are that the British were holding their gains of the morning when along a front of about four miles they attacked the Germans second line and captured several important positions. An unexpectedly large number of wounded came into the clearing stations during the morning hours; many were borne by German prisoners, who acted as litter bearers. These prisoners said that no attack had been expected, and that the assault before daylight came as a complete surprise.

Russian Success In Volhynia

Petrograd, July 17.—In Volhynia the Russians in the region of Ostroff and Goubine have put down heavy Teutonic attacks launched in mass formation and have forced the Teutons to retire to avoid the danger of being outflanked. According to a Russian official communication issued this evening upwards of three thousand men were captured in the fighting.

Germans Repulsed French Make Gains

Paris, July 17.—The Germans made two attacks in Lorraine last night. The War Office report of today says both assaults were repulsed. Attacks were delivered at a point southeast of Momeny. West of Fleury, the French made some progress, taking three machine guns. A raid on trenches in Champagne, occupied by Russian troops, was successfully met by a counter attack, causing heavy losses to the Germans. On the Verdun front the night was comparatively calm, except in the vicinity of Hill 304, where rifle firing was brisk.

British Drive Continues

London, July 15.—The British offensive was resumed today. The War Office announced that at one point the Germans were forced back to their third line positions; more than 2,000 prisoners were taken.

A Mile From Cambles

London, July 17.—The Anglo-French advance has brought the Allied troops where they make a junction to a point about a mile in front of Cambles, which, prior to July 1st, when the offensive began, was the German head quarters on the sector. Quiet prevailed on the British front. On Sunday a detachment which had been thrust forward to the third German line of Foureauz Wood to protect infantry operations has now been withdrawn to the main position. The casualty list as announced gives a total of 227 officers dead and 487 wounded or missing, 307 men dead and 1,832 wounded. The British are keenly watching for a new move on the front.

War-Saving Week

London, July 17.—The week beginning today is regarded in this country as the war-savings week in which every citizen of the United Kingdom is expected to live according to his means in the various forms provided by the Government for financing the war. The Chancellor of the Exchequer, Reginald McKenna, in a manifesto issued to-night urging the importance of the nation's efforts in this direction says, referring to the present military operations in France: "This is not a battle of a day or two, but the beginning of a long, patient and arduous offensive, demanding from our soldiers heroic exertions and unimaginable sacrifices. Are we at home content to be mere spectators of this wonderful effort? Pointing to the necessity for the same patient rights of self-denial on the part of the community, McKenna says, extravagance and waste are treason in war time, indifference is crime."

Significant

Paris, July 15.—The bombardment along the Belgian front has reached a point of the greatest intensity.

British Official

The Governor, Newfoundland: London, July 17.—The Somme battle continues to develop favourably. Dillville and Bazentin le Petit Wood have been captured, and our troops occupy the outskirts of Proxieres. It is just announced that fifteen hundred yards of enemy positions, north-west of Bazentin le Petit, and the strongly defended Waterloo farm, east of Longval, have been captured.

The remainder of the brave garrison of Ovillers, numbering 123, surrendered. The Dragon Guards, however, in action, and over two thousand prisoners have been taken. On Friday, five more howitzers and four other guns were captured. Captured documents indicate that the enemy casualties have been very heavy.

South of the Somme the enemy took Biahes and Malsonette by a surprise attack, but were again ejected. At Verdun early in the week the enemy entered Damloup battery and made some progress towards Fort Souville. The French have recently made progress in the same sector.

Russia announced to day that the enemy had been defeated south of the Lutsa salient, and driven across the Lipa. Thirteen thousand prisoners and thirty guns captured. Heavy fighting continues on the Stokhod and Baronovitch sectors. In the Caucasus the Russians retook Mamakhata and captured Bahurt. The Italians continue their pressure upon the Austrians.

BONAR LAW.

Sometime

Sometime, when all life's lessons have been learned.
And sun and star for evermore have set,
The things which our weak judgment there have spurned,
The things of which we grieved with lashes wet,
Will flash before us out of life's dark night,
As stars shine most in deeper tints of blue;
And we shall see how all God's plans were right,
And how what seemed reproach was love most true.
And we shall see how, while we frown and sigh,
God's plans go on as best for you and me;
How, when He heeded not our cry,
Because His wisdom to the end could see.
And even as wise parents pshaw too much of sweet to craving babyhood,
So God, perhaps, is keeping from us now
Life's sweetest things because it seemeth good.
And if, sometimes, commingled with God's wine,
We find the wormwood, and rebel, and shrink,
Be sure a wiser hand than yours or mine
Pours out this portion for our lips to drink.
If we could push ajar the gates of life,
And stand within and all God's work ing see,
We could interpret all this doubt and strife,
And for each mystery could find a key.
But not today. Then be content, poor heart!
God's plans, like lilies pure and white, unfold;
We must not tear the close-shut leaves apart,
Time will reveal the calyxes of gold.
And when, through patient toil, we reach the land
Where tired feet, with sandals loosed, may rest,
When we shall clearly see and understand
I think that we will say, 'God knew the best!'

Labrador Report

Fish Struck in Early Fishermen Late Getting Down

Capt. Parsons, of the S.S. Sagona, which ship arrived at St. John's from Labrador on Sunday morning last, furnishes the following report of the fishery on that coast to date:—
At Paul's Island the first sign of cod was had Saturday week.
Queen's Lakes.—Just a sign. From that place up to the Turnaviks the ship reported nothing more, but at these places there was a splendid sign of cod, though the people were at least two weeks too late in getting down to do anything. Thos. Evans had 150 qts. ashore.
At Hak the winter men said they jigged fish on the 29th May. Which is the earliest time on record on which cod was taken on Labrador. One winter man was has 200 qts. for a small crew. The Dunns and other good fish killers only just got down and were doing something as the ship came south.
At Makovik Island there was plenty of codfish and all doing well.
At Strawberry Bay crafts have as high as 500 qts., especially those which arrived early.
At Iron Bound Island, Hierthly, of Bay Roberts, were sitting out, with plenty of cod and caplin there, but no one there except those named to catch it.
Ragged Islands.—Plenty of fish, but the ship only just brought the crews there and all were hastily getting ready for the work. The Eskimos had it all to themselves. It was sticking off when the new arrivals came.
Jigger Tickle.—Two or three schooners 450 to 500 each.
Cape Harrison.—W. Sampson had 500 qts. and Reader the same. About 30 other schooners there had from 100 to 150 qts., but were too late for the first start.
King's Bay.—They did very well. Schooners 400 to 500.
Holton, Emily H., Horse H.—Doing well. Shoremen 50 to 150, but not as much fish when the ship was coming south.
White Bears.—Same as Snooky.
Wade, of Conception H., at five Islands, had 600 qts., as they were down early.
At Out Throat one man 450 qts.; others not doing well, being down too late. Some 100, others 150, and still others reporting very little.
From Peck's H., to Indian Tickle very little doing. From that up to Battle H., there has been a little sport, but as the ship came south it was poor.
