are proved to be so effective, is a complaint to those who have kept them in such fine order and a cheering argument against parting with them.

It is not for No. 1 hand-engine, Chatham would, undoubtedly, have lost property worth thousands of dollars more than it did on Monday.

SHEDDAS had been visited by a most destructive fire. It consumed nearly the whole business portion of the town, leaving, it is said, only one store standing.

Among the ones are Harper & Webster's Boot and Shoe Factory, the Montreal Academie office, E. J. Smith's, S. F. Poirier's and C. H. Gallant's stores.

About forty six buildings were destroyed, involving a loss of some $90,000, the insurance being reported at about $35,000.

Leading citizens of Richibucto Kingston and other parts of Richibucto parish, have signed nominations of Councillor Gordon Livingston and Hon. Owen McInerney, as their candidates for the Municipal Council to be elected on Tuesday, 28th inst.

Among the names on the nominations are those of Councilor D. O'Leary of Richibucto and Geo. Farthing of Kingston, both of whom were spoken of as exceedingly eligible candidates.

It is, therefore, probable that Messrs. McInerney and Livingston will be returned by acclamation, as they ought to be, Mr. Livingston having done the parish, as well as the County, excellent service during the past year and Mr. McInerney being a leading citizen, merchant and public man.

His acceptance of the nomination and willingness to share the management of the important interests involved, with his younger and more active prospective colleague, shows that he has a proper appreciation of the duty he owes to his fellow-citizens.

The work of Railway construction is proceeding quite rapidly, the fine and dry weather of the past few weeks being much in favor of the contractors and Company.

The grading is nearly all completed with exception of about six miles, a part of which is in the vicinity of Kingston, and the remainder on the upper end of the line a few miles from the Intercolonial. None of the masonry is yet done, the hauling of stone for the two open cuttings—the only work on which any masonry of consequence will be needed—being deferred until the winter, which will be an economical and advantageous arrangement.

The bridges show the effect of mismanagement in a greater degree than even the roads. It would, perhaps, be saying too much, to assert that there is not a bridge on the roads indicated that is in good repair, but we know there is not a bridge between Chatham and Richibucto that is not deficient in some respect, which, in several of the largest and most important are positively unsafe even by day and unfit for a stranger to cross at night.

Under the circumstances, it is the plain duty of the Chief Commissioner to apply himself to the work of reform. It is quite well known that he has not sufficient money at his disposal to do all the work necessary, but it is equally well known that the system under which money there is expended is very faulty and that great abuses have grown up under it.

It is not creditable to the gentlemen who have composed the Government of New Brunswick since Confederation, that this faulty road system has not been dealt with. Indeed, it is the habit of members of the Assembly, as well as of the Government, while admitting the fact that the public roads were wasted, to attribute it to the system. At the same time they lack either the ability or the courage to apply the remedy. We, therefore, hope that Chief Commissioner Landry's special attention to the work of this session, will lead him to take practical consideration to which he will be enabled to take steps towards a radical change.

It is in such matters that our expansive legislative and governmental machinery ought to be of service to us, and it will not be to the credit of those who are responsible if they let another session go by with a practical confession that they have failed to do the work required of them in this particular.

How They Help Us. It is to be regretted that the Advocate, which may possibly retain a small remnant of the influence it gained at the time it was edited by a gentleman, seems disposed to damage Chatham and its interests in every way and to lose no opportunity for having a fling at the Chatham Railway. Last week we referred to the unbusinesslike and vindictive policy of the Intercolonial Railway management in refusing to assist the Chatham Road, even when by doing so the I. C. R. might make money and give additional employment to workmen at the Moncton shops. The Advocate, instead of endeavoring to assist so important a County interest as the Chatham Railway really is, chooses to give aid to its friends in Montreal and elsewhere, who are never so pleased as when Chatham is made to feel the little revenges they have constantly threatened against it.

When the Advocate intimates that the Intercolonial Railway management now resorts to continue the policy which Mr. Brydges pursued towards the Chatham road, because of any difficulties in reason to complain for services rendered, it does so either in ignorance or malice. There has not been a time since the present Government came into power, when the Intercolonial Railway was not owing the Chatham Railway a large amount, and it is not long since the Intercolonial had to pay the Chatham road no less a sum than $20,000.

While reference to crooked modes of payment comes with bad grace, therefore, from such a quarter, Chatham, as well as the rest of the County, will be glad to know that the same enterprise which has put our Railway in its present position, in spite of all opposition, can still maintain it, even under the treatment accorded by the I. C. R.

Explanation. A good many items of interest, covering both local and general news, have been neglected this week chiefly on account of the absence of the editor from Chatham, until yesterday morning. The religious tone of so much of the matter in this number, however, will make up for the absence of our usually varied bill of fare.

Hand Fire-Engines. Although steam fire-engines are very effective and Chatham has a first-class one, which has always been well handled, the late fire on Water Street furnished abundant evidence of the fact that our hand-engines are still indispensable. But for No. 1 engine's excellent and effective service Mr. Crinim's residence must have taken fire, and it does so it is probable the flames would have spread in a widely destructive manner. The fact that the hand-engines in the case, holding that no one would accept the office of Bishop if he had to depend on yearly subscriptions for his salary. The subscription scheme was not feasible. But toward the evening of his life the Bishop gives us one more proof of his love in his offer to surrender to us a part of his income. He has given us all that is in his power to give. You have come here, year after year, and given verbal utterance to the high estimate in which you hold him. Now will you go back on these utterances that cost nothing and refuse him probably the last request of his life? (Great applause.)

Rev. G. M. Armstrong congratulated his young friend on his fiery speech. He agreed with his eulogy of the Bishop, but felt that the subject before the Synod was not the Bishop, but a Canon. Mr. Parkin's arguments might be used to show that they should delegate the election of a Bishop to his Lordship's hands. Personally he had no connection with any anonymous communications or pamphlets; he always wrote over his own signature. He would sooner give the election to his Lordship as Metropolitan than the nomination to him as Bishop of Fredericton, though he would how to the election of the Synod, wherever it might be.

Mr. W. M. Jarvis could not give a silent vote. He said Mr. Parkin's able speech put all the opponents of the Canon in a very painful position.
