Will the churches which have not taken their collection please attend to it at once. The needy ministers, widows and orphans are looking forward to January let for their small allowance. They should not be disappointed. The number of C. H. Hayscock, of Pugwash, writes me that his church will not take a collection, but will send a number of young women through the congregation to get subscriptions. That is a capital plan. It interests all in this important work. We are waiting for donations from kind brethren and sisters. They are coming. — E. M. S.

THE PRIZES AWARDED.

The final awards in the literary competition offered by the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., of Brookville, Ont., have just been announced. The decision as to the order merit of the five stories selected was left to a vote of the readers, and that great interest was taken in the matter is shown by the fact that 16,728 votes were recorded. "A Night on Crookback, by Dns. (Mrs. R. S. Smellie, Toronto) received 4665 votes, the largest number cast and is awarded first prize. "The Lady of Beauce," by Othman (Thos. Swift, Ottawa), comes second, with 4403 votes. "The Fall of York," by Allan Douglas Brodie, (T. Herbert Chestnut, Toronto), takes the third with 3204 votes, the Hon. J. G. Macdonald, by Margery Cooker, Mrs. C. F. Fraser, Halifax, N. S.), has the fourth place with 2500 votes. "The New Eden," by Jagoo, C. B. Keenleyde, Brantford,) 2166 votes is awarded 5th prize. The prizes are $100, $75, $50, $25 and $25. The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co. deserves much credit for so liberally assisting in developing a Canadian literary talent.

WHAT

shall I buy for Xmas? is the annual holiday question. There is no BETTER

GIFT for your wife, daughter or sweetheart, than a handsome dress. Why not make a XMAS offering that would be at once ornamental and useful? Such a GIFT would be one of these fine Dress patterns we are now offering. They are close to the import mark in styles, in varieties, in qualities, in everything but the prices—there the dash has been the other way.

Beautiful, black brocade patterns, 42 & 44 in. wide, for 58, 60, 70, 80c. and $1 a yard. If you would like a nice dress for wife, daughter or sweetheart, send us $5, $6, $7, or $8, and give us an idea as to color you want, and we will send the dress with all lining, (and we will send the best cash you get for the money) because we want your trade to keep it. Money refunded if goods are not satisfactory. We pay expressage to you.

EVERYBODY has an interest in. Plans especially at this season. Here is a lot of Japanese Silk Hdk's for men & women. These are tastefully embroidered, 22 in. sq., at 50 and 75c.

Another lot for men, 10 in. plain, hemstitched, 3c—reads like a misprint. It isn't 2c, a piece. Another lot for men, 10 in. plain, hemstitched, 3c—reads like a misprint. It isn't 2c, a piece. A smaller lot of 9 in. hemstitched, embroidered, initial, the best work of the Japs, and here is a set of just like ordinary hdk's, at 25c each. For stock we'll send three Ladies' handkerchiefs—too many to write about, but just a plain, hemstitched, with initial, for 18c., and one with an embroidered initial, with beautiful border of drawn work, for 20c.

We pay postage on F. A. DYKEMAN & CO., 97 King St., ST. JOHN, N. B.

EVERYBODY has an interest in. Plans especially at this season. Here is a lot of Japanese Silk Hdk's for men & women. These are tastefully embroidered, 22 in. sq., at 50 and 75c.
