

PHILADELPHIA TAKES LAST GAME

PHILADELPHIA TAKES FOURTH AND LAST GAME

Tigers Beaten to the Tune of 4-3 in Concluding Game of Series—Barry Spiked by Cobb.

Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 20.—Philadelphia defeated Detroit today in the final game of the series, making three victories for the home team to one for Detroit. The score was 4 to 3. It was the fourteenth victory for Philadelphia in the 22 games played with Detroit this season.

The game today was intensely exciting from start to finish, more than 10,000 persons cheering themselves hoarse at the many exciting incidents. Barry, of Philadelphia, was spiked on the leg between the knee and ankle by Cobb, of Detroit, who attempted to slide into second base. It is probable that Barry will be out of the game for the remainder of the season. It was admitted by the home club officials that the injuring of Barry was an accident. The Philadelphia players bunched safe drives with battery misplays by Detroit while the visiting players also made the majority of their hits count.

Philadelphia scored two runs in the first inning on four balls to Barry, Collins double and Baker's single. O'Leary, who received four balls at Detroit, scored on the third inning, scored on McIntyre's long fly to Heilmiller. Philadelphia scored another pair of runs in the fourth inning. With one out, Baker singled and took third on DeLoach's single, the latter keeping on to second where Moriarty dropped the ball to third base, the latter scored on Murphy's single. With one out, Baker singled and took third on DeLoach's single, the latter keeping on to second where Moriarty dropped the ball to third base, the latter scored on Murphy's single.

Philadelphia scored two runs in the first inning on four balls to Barry, Collins double and Baker's single. O'Leary, who received four balls at Detroit, scored on the third inning, scored on McIntyre's long fly to Heilmiller. Philadelphia scored another pair of runs in the fourth inning. With one out, Baker singled and took third on DeLoach's single, the latter keeping on to second where Moriarty dropped the ball to third base, the latter scored on Murphy's single.

Philadelphia scored two runs in the first inning on four balls to Barry, Collins double and Baker's single. O'Leary, who received four balls at Detroit, scored on the third inning, scored on McIntyre's long fly to Heilmiller. Philadelphia scored another pair of runs in the fourth inning. With one out, Baker singled and took third on DeLoach's single, the latter keeping on to second where Moriarty dropped the ball to third base, the latter scored on Murphy's single.

Philadelphia scored two runs in the first inning on four balls to Barry, Collins double and Baker's single. O'Leary, who received four balls at Detroit, scored on the third inning, scored on McIntyre's long fly to Heilmiller. Philadelphia scored another pair of runs in the fourth inning. With one out, Baker singled and took third on DeLoach's single, the latter keeping on to second where Moriarty dropped the ball to third base, the latter scored on Murphy's single.

Philadelphia scored two runs in the first inning on four balls to Barry, Collins double and Baker's single. O'Leary, who received four balls at Detroit, scored on the third inning, scored on McIntyre's long fly to Heilmiller. Philadelphia scored another pair of runs in the fourth inning. With one out, Baker singled and took third on DeLoach's single, the latter keeping on to second where Moriarty dropped the ball to third base, the latter scored on Murphy's single.

Philadelphia scored two runs in the first inning on four balls to Barry, Collins double and Baker's single. O'Leary, who received four balls at Detroit, scored on the third inning, scored on McIntyre's long fly to Heilmiller. Philadelphia scored another pair of runs in the fourth inning. With one out, Baker singled and took third on DeLoach's single, the latter keeping on to second where Moriarty dropped the ball to third base, the latter scored on Murphy's single.

Philadelphia scored two runs in the first inning on four balls to Barry, Collins double and Baker's single. O'Leary, who received four balls at Detroit, scored on the third inning, scored on McIntyre's long fly to Heilmiller. Philadelphia scored another pair of runs in the fourth inning. With one out, Baker singled and took third on DeLoach's single, the latter keeping on to second where Moriarty dropped the ball to third base, the latter scored on Murphy's single.

Philadelphia scored two runs in the first inning on four balls to Barry, Collins double and Baker's single. O'Leary, who received four balls at Detroit, scored on the third inning, scored on McIntyre's long fly to Heilmiller. Philadelphia scored another pair of runs in the fourth inning. With one out, Baker singled and took third on DeLoach's single, the latter keeping on to second where Moriarty dropped the ball to third base, the latter scored on Murphy's single.

Exciting Scenes Witnessed At Frederickton Yesterday

Driver James W. Gallagher Assaulted at Conclusion of Fifth Heat in 2.25 Trot and Pace and General Fight Follows—Surveyor Takes Barker House Stake—2.25 Unfinished.

Special to The Standard. Exhibition Grounds, Frederickton, N. B., Sept. 20.—With what appeared to be a rather uninteresting card today's racing programme provided some of the most exciting times witnessed at the Frederickton Park Association track for some years. Finally the 2.30 trot Barker House stake of $400 was won by The Surveyor, the champion trotting stallion of the Maritime Provinces who just nosed out King Arion, the local trotting stallion in 2.19.34 in the second heat the fastest time of the race.

It was the 2.25 trot and pace class for the Waverly and Lorne Hotels' purse of $300 that provided all the excitement. It developed into a spillover affair and also resulted in an assault upon Driver James W. Gallagher of Woodstock after he had driven Lady Belmont owned by McCoy Bros. of this city under the wire ahead in the fifth heat when he was put behind the mare in place of Harvey McCoy. The assault was followed by a general fight for some time at the track management have a situation to deal with which demands not only prompt but decisive action.

Belmont was imported from Toronto about ten days ago by McCoy Bros. and entered in the 2.25 class in their name although really owned by a couple of other horsemen. She was sent to the track with Harvey McCoy driving and during the first couple of heats he just simply was buggy riding and finished second to Joe Patchen, Jr. In the third heat Quincy A. the son of Vassar owned and driven by Thos. Hayes of St. John landed ahead but the best Lady Belmont got was fourth on Plank's glove, filling the bases for Harry, who had replaced Driver Archer behind the Halifax horse swerved across the stretch when his horse broke as they were nearing the end of the race. The judges were thrown into confusion by the Belmont mare throwing Mr. McCoy. Before the next heat Mr. McCoy was called to the judges stand and cautioned against pulling the mare. The judges finally decided that they did not think he was doing his best to win. No more effort was shown than before and further complaints caused the judges to decide to take Mr. McCoy out of the race. Jinnale Gallagher was instructed to take charge of the mare.

Quincy A. broke on the first turn of this heat and with Beasly Pardonson and Joe Patchen, Jr. failing to respond to urging in the drive through the stretch to the wire the second time around Lady Belmont just nosed out the Pardonson mare. That the judges' move in changing drivers was popular was shown by the applause that greeted Mr. Gallagher when he took charge of the mare and when he finished her.

During the twenty-five minute period between heats Mr. Gallagher received a message to go to Light House in July at Harvey McCoy wanted to speak to him about something. Mr. Gallagher went to the stall as requested and was unexpectedly set upon by Beasly Pardonson, who vehemently upbraided him for allowing Lady Belmont to win. During the assault Mr. Gallagher was struck several times and also kicked. Several other people got into the fight, including Mr. Gallagher's groom, Randolph Nelson, who was struck when he tried to go to the assistance of his employer. Later some of the spectators mixed it up a little near the stables, and it kept the police busy to quell the disturbance, dispersing the course of which Burke disappeared by quietly jumping into a car and driving down town. Driver S. McCoy and Gallagher were summoned to the judges' stand, where the judges officially learned of the assault upon the driver they had ordered to take over the mare and Mr. McCoy acknowledged that he had urged on Mr. Gallagher's assailant. The judges stated that they would take the matter into consideration before announcing any action.

Mr. Gallagher then went on and won the sixth heat, after which the race had to remain unfinished until tomorrow afternoon. It is generally believed that some heavy penalties will be handed out by the judges to the men over whom they have any jurisdiction, while the local association will no doubt take action against Mr. Gallagher's assailant as the future of racing annals demands that some action in that direction be taken, it being a recognized rule in racing that drivers given mounts by the judges must be protected. The whole affair created a great sensation and has been the talk of the horsemen ever since.

The feature of the 2.30 trot stake was the fast time in which The Surveyor was driven out in the second heat by King Arion, the latter having as much as much speed as the Halifax champion when he stayed on his feet.

There was somewhat of an objection from the spectators when the best Lady Belmont got was fourth on Plank's glove, filling the bases for Harry, who had replaced Driver Archer behind the Halifax horse swerved across the stretch when his horse broke as they were nearing the end of the race. The judges were thrown into confusion by the Belmont mare throwing Mr. McCoy. Before the next heat Mr. McCoy was called to the judges stand and cautioned against pulling the mare. The judges finally decided that they did not think he was doing his best to win. No more effort was shown than before and further complaints caused the judges to decide to take Mr. McCoy out of the race. Jinnale Gallagher was instructed to take charge of the mare.

Quincy A. broke on the first turn of this heat and with Beasly Pardonson and Joe Patchen, Jr. failing to respond to urging in the drive through the stretch to the wire the second time around Lady Belmont just nosed out the Pardonson mare. That the judges' move in changing drivers was popular was shown by the applause that greeted Mr. Gallagher when he took charge of the mare and when he finished her.

During the twenty-five minute period between heats Mr. Gallagher received a message to go to Light House in July at Harvey McCoy wanted to speak to him about something. Mr. Gallagher went to the stall as requested and was unexpectedly set upon by Beasly Pardonson, who vehemently upbraided him for allowing Lady Belmont to win. During the assault Mr. Gallagher was struck several times and also kicked. Several other people got into the fight, including Mr. Gallagher's groom, Randolph Nelson, who was struck when he tried to go to the assistance of his employer. Later some of the spectators mixed it up a little near the stables, and it kept the police busy to quell the disturbance, dispersing the course of which Burke disappeared by quietly jumping into a car and driving down town. Driver S. McCoy and Gallagher were summoned to the judges' stand, where the judges officially learned of the assault upon the driver they had ordered to take over the mare and Mr. McCoy acknowledged that he had urged on Mr. Gallagher's assailant. The judges stated that they would take the matter into consideration before announcing any action.

Mr. Gallagher then went on and won the sixth heat, after which the race had to remain unfinished until tomorrow afternoon. It is generally believed that some heavy penalties will be handed out by the judges to the men over whom they have any jurisdiction, while the local association will no doubt take action against Mr. Gallagher's assailant as the future of racing annals demands that some action in that direction be taken, it being a recognized rule in racing that drivers given mounts by the judges must be protected. The whole affair created a great sensation and has been the talk of the horsemen ever since.

The feature of the 2.30 trot stake was the fast time in which The Surveyor was driven out in the second heat by King Arion, the latter having as much as much speed as the Halifax champion when he stayed on his feet.

There was somewhat of an objection from the spectators when the best Lady Belmont got was fourth on Plank's glove, filling the bases for Harry, who had replaced Driver Archer behind the Halifax horse swerved across the stretch when his horse broke as they were nearing the end of the race. The judges were thrown into confusion by the Belmont mare throwing Mr. McCoy. Before the next heat Mr. McCoy was called to the judges stand and cautioned against pulling the mare. The judges finally decided that they did not think he was doing his best to win. No more effort was shown than before and further complaints caused the judges to decide to take Mr. McCoy out of the race. Jinnale Gallagher was instructed to take charge of the mare.

Quincy A. broke on the first turn of this heat and with Beasly Pardonson and Joe Patchen, Jr. failing to respond to urging in the drive through the stretch to the wire the second time around Lady Belmont just nosed out the Pardonson mare. That the judges' move in changing drivers was popular was shown by the applause that greeted Mr. Gallagher when he took charge of the mare and when he finished her.

During the twenty-five minute period between heats Mr. Gallagher received a message to go to Light House in July at Harvey McCoy wanted to speak to him about something. Mr. Gallagher went to the stall as requested and was unexpectedly set upon by Beasly Pardonson, who vehemently upbraided him for allowing Lady Belmont to win. During the assault Mr. Gallagher was struck several times and also kicked. Several other people got into the fight, including Mr. Gallagher's groom, Randolph Nelson, who was struck when he tried to go to the assistance of his employer. Later some of the spectators mixed it up a little near the stables, and it kept the police busy to quell the disturbance, dispersing the course of which Burke disappeared by quietly jumping into a car and driving down town. Driver S. McCoy and Gallagher were summoned to the judges' stand, where the judges officially learned of the assault upon the driver they had ordered to take over the mare and Mr. McCoy acknowledged that he had urged on Mr. Gallagher's assailant. The judges stated that they would take the matter into consideration before announcing any action.

GEORGE GANO TAKES BOARD OF TRADE STAKE

Exciting Scenes Witnessed At Frederickton Yesterday

Driver James W. Gallagher Assaulted at Conclusion of Fifth Heat in 2.25 Trot and Pace and General Fight Follows—Surveyor Takes Barker House Stake—2.25 Unfinished.

Special to The Standard. Exhibition Grounds, Frederickton, N. B., Sept. 20.—With what appeared to be a rather uninteresting card today's racing programme provided some of the most exciting times witnessed at the Frederickton Park Association track for some years. Finally the 2.30 trot Barker House stake of $400 was won by The Surveyor, the champion trotting stallion of the Maritime Provinces who just nosed out King Arion, the local trotting stallion in 2.19.34 in the second heat the fastest time of the race.

It was the 2.25 trot and pace class for the Waverly and Lorne Hotels' purse of $300 that provided all the excitement. It developed into a spillover affair and also resulted in an assault upon Driver James W. Gallagher of Woodstock after he had driven Lady Belmont owned by McCoy Bros. of this city under the wire ahead in the fifth heat when he was put behind the mare in place of Harvey McCoy. The assault was followed by a general fight for some time at the track management have a situation to deal with which demands not only prompt but decisive action.

Belmont was imported from Toronto about ten days ago by McCoy Bros. and entered in the 2.25 class in their name although really owned by a couple of other horsemen. She was sent to the track with Harvey McCoy driving and during the first couple of heats he just simply was buggy riding and finished second to Joe Patchen, Jr. In the third heat Quincy A. the son of Vassar owned and driven by Thos. Hayes of St. John landed ahead but the best Lady Belmont got was fourth on Plank's glove, filling the bases for Harry, who had replaced Driver Archer behind the Halifax horse swerved across the stretch when his horse broke as they were nearing the end of the race. The judges were thrown into confusion by the Belmont mare throwing Mr. McCoy. Before the next heat Mr. McCoy was called to the judges stand and cautioned against pulling the mare. The judges finally decided that they did not think he was doing his best to win. No more effort was shown than before and further complaints caused the judges to decide to take Mr. McCoy out of the race. Jinnale Gallagher was instructed to take charge of the mare.

Quincy A. broke on the first turn of this heat and with Beasly Pardonson and Joe Patchen, Jr. failing to respond to urging in the drive through the stretch to the wire the second time around Lady Belmont just nosed out the Pardonson mare. That the judges' move in changing drivers was popular was shown by the applause that greeted Mr. Gallagher when he took charge of the mare and when he finished her.

During the twenty-five minute period between heats Mr. Gallagher received a message to go to Light House in July at Harvey McCoy wanted to speak to him about something. Mr. Gallagher went to the stall as requested and was unexpectedly set upon by Beasly Pardonson, who vehemently upbraided him for allowing Lady Belmont to win. During the assault Mr. Gallagher was struck several times and also kicked. Several other people got into the fight, including Mr. Gallagher's groom, Randolph Nelson, who was struck when he tried to go to the assistance of his employer. Later some of the spectators mixed it up a little near the stables, and it kept the police busy to quell the disturbance, dispersing the course of which Burke disappeared by quietly jumping into a car and driving down town. Driver S. McCoy and Gallagher were summoned to the judges' stand, where the judges officially learned of the assault upon the driver they had ordered to take over the mare and Mr. McCoy acknowledged that he had urged on Mr. Gallagher's assailant. The judges stated that they would take the matter into consideration before announcing any action.

Mr. Gallagher then went on and won the sixth heat, after which the race had to remain unfinished until tomorrow afternoon. It is generally believed that some heavy penalties will be handed out by the judges to the men over whom they have any jurisdiction, while the local association will no doubt take action against Mr. Gallagher's assailant as the future of racing annals demands that some action in that direction be taken, it being a recognized rule in racing that drivers given mounts by the judges must be protected. The whole affair created a great sensation and has been the talk of the horsemen ever since.

The feature of the 2.30 trot stake was the fast time in which The Surveyor was driven out in the second heat by King Arion, the latter having as much as much speed as the Halifax champion when he stayed on his feet.

There was somewhat of an objection from the spectators when the best Lady Belmont got was fourth on Plank's glove, filling the bases for Harry, who had replaced Driver Archer behind the Halifax horse swerved across the stretch when his horse broke as they were nearing the end of the race. The judges were thrown into confusion by the Belmont mare throwing Mr. McCoy. Before the next heat Mr. McCoy was called to the judges stand and cautioned against pulling the mare. The judges finally decided that they did not think he was doing his best to win. No more effort was shown than before and further complaints caused the judges to decide to take Mr. McCoy out of the race. Jinnale Gallagher was instructed to take charge of the mare.

Quincy A. broke on the first turn of this heat and with Beasly Pardonson and Joe Patchen, Jr. failing to respond to urging in the drive through the stretch to the wire the second time around Lady Belmont just nosed out the Pardonson mare. That the judges' move in changing drivers was popular was shown by the applause that greeted Mr. Gallagher when he took charge of the mare and when he finished her.

During the twenty-five minute period between heats Mr. Gallagher received a message to go to Light House in July at Harvey McCoy wanted to speak to him about something. Mr. Gallagher went to the stall as requested and was unexpectedly set upon by Beasly Pardonson, who vehemently upbraided him for allowing Lady Belmont to win. During the assault Mr. Gallagher was struck several times and also kicked. Several other people got into the fight, including Mr. Gallagher's groom, Randolph Nelson, who was struck when he tried to go to the assistance of his employer. Later some of the spectators mixed it up a little near the stables, and it kept the police busy to quell the disturbance, dispersing the course of which Burke disappeared by quietly jumping into a car and driving down town. Driver S. McCoy and Gallagher were summoned to the judges' stand, where the judges officially learned of the assault upon the driver they had ordered to take over the mare and Mr. McCoy acknowledged that he had urged on Mr. Gallagher's assailant. The judges stated that they would take the matter into consideration before announcing any action.

Mr. Gallagher then went on and won the sixth heat, after which the race had to remain unfinished until tomorrow afternoon. It is generally believed that some heavy penalties will be handed out by the judges to the men over whom they have any jurisdiction, while the local association will no doubt take action against Mr. Gallagher's assailant as the future of racing annals demands that some action in that direction be taken, it being a recognized rule in racing that drivers given mounts by the judges must be protected. The whole affair created a great sensation and has been the talk of the horsemen ever since.

The feature of the 2.30 trot stake was the fast time in which The Surveyor was driven out in the second heat by King Arion, the latter having as much as much speed as the Halifax champion when he stayed on his feet.

There was somewhat of an objection from the spectators when the best Lady Belmont got was fourth on Plank's glove, filling the bases for Harry, who had replaced Driver Archer behind the Halifax horse swerved across the stretch when his horse broke as they were nearing the end of the race. The judges were thrown into confusion by the Belmont mare throwing Mr. McCoy. Before the next heat Mr. McCoy was called to the judges stand and cautioned against pulling the mare. The judges finally decided that they did not think he was doing his best to win. No more effort was shown than before and further complaints caused the judges to decide to take Mr. McCoy out of the race. Jinnale Gallagher was instructed to take charge of the mare.

Quincy A. broke on the first turn of this heat and with Beasly Pardonson and Joe Patchen, Jr. failing to respond to urging in the drive through the stretch to the wire the second time around Lady Belmont just nosed out the Pardonson mare. That the judges' move in changing drivers was popular was shown by the applause that greeted Mr. Gallagher when he took charge of the mare and when he finished her.

During the twenty-five minute period between heats Mr. Gallagher received a message to go to Light House in July at Harvey McCoy wanted to speak to him about something. Mr. Gallagher went to the stall as requested and was unexpectedly set upon by Beasly Pardonson, who vehemently upbraided him for allowing Lady Belmont to win. During the assault Mr. Gallagher was struck several times and also kicked. Several other people got into the fight, including Mr. Gallagher's groom, Randolph Nelson, who was struck when he tried to go to the assistance of his employer. Later some of the spectators mixed it up a little near the stables, and it kept the police busy to quell the disturbance, dispersing the course of which Burke disappeared by quietly jumping into a car and driving down town. Driver S. McCoy and Gallagher were summoned to the judges' stand, where the judges officially learned of the assault upon the driver they had ordered to take over the mare and Mr. McCoy acknowledged that he had urged on Mr. Gallagher's assailant. The judges stated that they would take the matter into consideration before announcing any action.

Quincy A. broke on the first turn of this heat and with Beasly Pardonson and Joe Patchen, Jr. failing to respond to urging in the drive through the stretch to the wire the second time around Lady Belmont just nosed out the Pardonson mare. That the judges' move in changing drivers was popular was shown by the applause that greeted Mr. Gallagher when he took charge of the mare and when he finished her.

During the twenty-five minute period between heats Mr. Gallagher received a message to go to Light House in July at Harvey McCoy wanted to speak to him about something. Mr. Gallagher went to the stall as requested and was unexpectedly set upon by Beasly Pardonson, who vehemently upbraided him for allowing Lady Belmont to win. During the assault Mr. Gallagher was struck several times and also kicked. Several other people got into the fight, including Mr. Gallagher's groom, Randolph Nelson, who was struck when he tried to go to the assistance of his employer. Later some of the spectators mixed it up a little near the stables, and it kept the police busy to quell the disturbance, dispersing the course of which Burke disappeared by quietly jumping into a car and driving down town. Driver S. McCoy and Gallagher were summoned to the judges' stand, where the judges officially learned of the assault upon the driver they had ordered to take over the mare and Mr. McCoy acknowledged that he had urged on Mr. Gallagher's assailant. The judges stated that they would take the matter into consideration before announcing any action.

WOODSTOCK TOO CLAIMS BALL CHAMPIONSHIP

North Shore Town is Sore Because Marathons Decline to Play Series and Trouble is Brewing.

Special to The Standard. Woodstock, N. B., Sept. 20.—Manager Donald of the Marathons informed the editor of the Press today over the telephone that the games partly arranged for the championship of the Province between the Marathons and Woodstock, two in Woodstock on Wednesday and two in St. John on Saturday, could not be played.

This news came as a great surprise and disappointment to the fans here. When the evening games ceased the local team was to be disbanded, but it has been kept intact with the hope that games could be arranged with the Marathons. The St. John team won two games here against a junior team, the Bullets, early in the season and promised to give return games in St. John. Every effort has been made to get these games, but without success. The Marathons have never beaten the town team, and it is not any other team will be allowed to claim the Provincial championship until they have won from the Woodstock team. Any terms suitable to the Marathons will please Woodstock.

The managers of course, have the usual difficulty in getting the full teams out to practice but the interest seems rather keen this year. The brilliant men do not show up to practice and as a result often go to pieces in a hard game, while the steady play is busy getting into training and will last the season. The Algonquins announce a practice every night. Candidates for the red and black fifteen include the follows: F. G. Kenney, Roy Drinan, "Bob" Melrose, Hazen Howard, Dave Roberts, Fred Finley, McGowan, Walter Jones, John McKinnon, Ned Finley, S. K. Smith, C. W. Clark, Weyman, Frank Greason, Stan Seely, Carter Tius, Charles Seely, big knee before the racing commenced.

ISLAND FAIR TO OPEN DOORS THIS MORNING

The Prince Edward Island Exhibition will open today at Charlottetown. Besides the exhibition there will be three days horse racing. Today there will be two classes, the 2.35 trot stake and the 2.25 trot and 2.28 pace. On Thursday there will be three classes, the 2.18 trot and pace and the 2.50 class trot stake and the 2.40 pace stake.

LORD BALFOUR SEES NO RED SPOTS IN HORIZON

New York, Sept. 20.—Lord Balfour of Burleigh, who is unrelated to the former British Premier, Arthur Balfour, was a passenger by the Cunard liner Campana, lately arriving here. He is a member of the commission appointed by King Edward to adjust trade relations between the British colonies, and he is going to Canada to confer with representatives of the Dominion Government about commerce between the West Indies and Canada. Lord Balfour said he did not agree entirely with the secretary of the committee, Admiral Lord Charles Boscawen, who is in charge of the British navy about war. He said he could see no "red spots" on England's sky and that he believed that the rulers of Germany and England did not want war; that the people were fermenting it, and if the agitation continued the rulers might have to take a stand to avoid the appearance of backing down.

About the north pole controversy, Lord Balfour said:—"England has a tendency to believe in the whole thing is characteristically American. It is quite natural that two energetic Americans should find the pole and just as natural that they should quarrel about it. I am really surprised that the thing did not happen before."

SUFFRAGETTES IN TROUBLE IN ENGLAND

Birmingham, Sept. 20.—Ten suffragettes were brought up in the police court today for connection with the disturbances of Prime Minister Asquith's visit and speech last night. They were charged with disorderly conduct, assaulting the police and throwing stones.

Eight were remanded and two were sent to prison for a month because they threw missiles at the train in which Mr. Asquith was travelling. The missiles smashed the window of the rear compartment and thus endangered the safety of the passengers.

Police men gave evidence to the effect that the suffragette rock climbers were without their shoes and hence as nimble as cats. One policeman was knocked off the roof to the roof of a lower adjoining building. Another policeman got a black eye. When the women were arrested and taken to the detention prison they smashed the windows of their cells.

Dr. Fox, B. G. (Gahagan) 6 8 5
Emma Welten, b. m. (Titer) 9 6 6
J. B. Ch. g. (Bosworth) 8 9 8
Time—2:08 1-4; 2:08 1-2; 2:09 1-4.

THE ILLA MODEL RANGE

Second to None
Easy on Fuel, a Perfect Baker, Direct Draft, Removable Nickel, Fitted with Plain or Dockash Grate, Manufactured in this city thus enabling you to have repairs promptly. Before purchasing call in and inspect our line of Stoves and Ranges.

Guarantee with every Range
J. E. WILSON, Ltd.
Phone 356. 17 Sydney Street.

FIRE

That safe feeling when the fire bell rings is obtained by having a policy in the SUN Fire Office, the oldest fire office in the world. See us or write.
FRANK R. FAIRWEATHER, 68 Prince William Street, St. John, N. B.

WHAT ABOUT YOUR WINTER OVERCOAT?

Drop us your order on a card while it is yet early, we will call for it. You won't know when it comes back. We deliver also.
The BOSTON CLEANING & PRESSING CO., 126 Mill Street.

When Asepto Gives a Helping Hand, Washing Labor is Halved.

Asepto is the right sort of a wash-day helper. Use it with hot water or with cold. A tablespoonful to a bucket of water is plenty. Leave the clothes in the tub for ten hours and you will be able to do other household duties. When the time is up, you will be able to see how rapidly the dirt has disappeared—and without the usual destructive washing.

Asepto Soap Powder. Costs but 5c. a package, at all discerning grocers.

ASEPTO SOAP POWDER
Manufactured by the Asepto Mfg. Co., St. John, N.B.

JOHN E. MADDEN ADOPTS NOVEL SYSTEM OF BREEDING HORSES

Arabian Methods To Be Applied to American Trotters—The Scheme in Detail.

Following the plan of the Arabs, who trace all families of their horses to certain foundation mares and regard the female line as of paramount importance, John E. Madden is instituting a novel system of breeding trotters at his 2,000 acre farm in Kentucky. When Mr. Madden bought Nancy Hanks, 204, a year or two ago, and then proceeded to pick up several daughters of the former queen of trotters the New York Herald and Courier called attention to his apparent attempt to corner the family. It now appears that he has followed the same course respecting two other families, and has at Hamburg Place bred the female line of his mares, tracing back to three foundation sources, or tap roots, as he calls them.

These are the only mares from which he will breed, except as an independent enterprise. Fanella, 213, the dam of Sadie Mac, 206, and of Fodda, 214, is on the farm, but none of her daughters will be used for breeding purposes at Hamburg Place, and her blood will be excluded from the stud unless she produces a son that is considered good enough to be used as a sire.

In "ans containing his breeding operations to the direct descendants of three mares Mr. Madden says he will be insured against introducing inadvertently a strain that might prove to be "saladist in taste," as Robert Bonner once said of the Clays. Another consideration is that when a fast trotter from the stud is brought out, his family will be reflected on one of relatives at home instead of one only, as usually is the case when a breeder's mares are of many different families.

One of his foundation mares to which Mr. Madden has pinned his faith is Mamie, by Star Almont, Jr., 216. Mamie's dam, Kit, was by Long's American Boy, and her grand dam was by Roger's Highlander. Star Almont never got a trotter with a record as fast as 2:30, and as the maternal ancestors of Mamie were obscure, non-standard horses, she could not be called a particularly well bred mare. But, like many other individuals in the records of track and stud, she was far greater than her pedigree. She founded a tribe of her own. Foaled in 1886, she produced six fillies, as follows:

1884, blf. Critterion, 2:29 1/2 (dam of Wilto Leyburn, 2:14 1/2; Little Leyburn, 2:15 1/2; Critio Leyburn, 2:16 1/2; Bertha Leyburn, 2:17; Skiffull, 2:17 1/2, etc.)
1886, ch. f. Catherine Leyburn, 2:14 (dam of Annie Leyburn, 2:10 1/2, pacing)
1887, b. f. Rose Leyburn, 2:15 1/2 (dam of Mary P. Leyburn, 2:11 1/2, etc.)
1890, b. f. Helen Leyburn, 2:14 (dam of Mary P. Leyburn, 2:11 1/2, etc.)
1891, br. f. Alice Leyburn, 2:23 1/2 (dam of Roma, 2:18 1/2)
1892, br. f. Scourie, 2:18 1/2 (dam of Roma, 2:18 1/2)
1893, br. f. Scourie, 2:18 1/2 (dam of Roma, 2:18 1/2)
1894, br. f. Scourie, 2:18 1/2 (dam of Roma, 2:18 1/2)
1895, br. f. Scourie, 2:18 1/2 (dam of Roma, 2:18 1/2)
1896, br. f. Scourie, 2:18 1/2 (dam of Roma, 2:18 1/2)
1897, br. f. Scourie, 2:18 1/2 (dam of Roma, 2:18 1/2)
1898, br. f. Scourie, 2:18 1/2 (dam of Roma, 2:18 1/2)
1899, br. f. Scourie, 2:18 1/2 (dam of Roma, 2:18 1/2)
1900, br. f. Scourie, 2:18 1/2 (dam of Roma, 2:18 1/2)
1901, br. f. Scourie, 2:18 1/2 (dam of Roma, 2:18 1/2)
1902, br. f. Scourie, 2:18 1/2 (dam of Roma, 2:18 1/2)
1903, br. f. Scourie, 2:18 1/2 (dam of Roma, 2:18 1/2)
1904, br. f. Scourie, 2:18 1/2 (dam of Roma, 2:18 1/2)
1905, br. f. Scourie, 2:18 1/2 (dam of Roma, 2:18 1/2)
1906, br. f. Scourie, 2:18 1/2 (dam of Roma, 2:18 1/2)
1907, br. f. Scourie, 2:18 1/2 (dam of Roma, 2:18 1/2)
1908, br. f. Scourie, 2:18 1/2 (dam of Roma, 2:18 1/2)
1909, br. f. Scourie, 2:18 1/2 (dam of Roma, 2:18 1/2)

Of this remarkable brood Mr. Madden owns Rose Leyburn, also Countess Leyburn, 2:26 1/4, by Arion, 2:07 3/4, out of Rose Leyburn; Bertha Leyburn, 2:17, by Arion, out of Critterion; Belle Leyburn, 2:23 1/4, by Bow Belis, 2:14 1/2, out of Critterion; Wilto Leyburn, 2:14 1/2, by Wilton, 2:19 1/4, out of Critterion; Elsie Leyburn, 2:27 3/4 (dam of Jack Leyburn, 2:04 1/4) by Expedition, 2:14 1/4, out of Skiffull, 2:17 1/2; Queen Leyburn, by Clay Kitt, out of Alice Leyburn, 2:29 1/4; Lady Leyburn, by Arion, out of Margaret Leyburn, 2:25 3/4, by Wilton, out of Rose Leyburn; Willet Leyburn, by Wilton, out of Belle Leyburn and Minnie Leyburn, by Prince Wilburn, 2:21 1/2 (a son of Rose Leyburn), out of Elsie Leyburn.

Mr. Madden's third foundation mare is Silcock, 2:13 1/2, winner of $12,000 as a three-year-old in 1892. She was by Wilton, 2:19 1/4, out of Silhouette, by Mambino, 2:21 1/2, grandam of Silverock, 2:19 1/4, by Mambino, 2:19 1/4, the dam of Silcock, 2:11 1/4, winner of the Kentucky, 1894, and of 1896, and of Brighton, 2:27 1/4, a young edition of 2:00 speed that Mr. Madden considered good enough to mate with Nancy Hanks last spring.

Of the Nancy Hanks family he owns the old mare herself and her daughters, Markala, by Peter the Great, 2:07 1/4; Nancy McKerron, 2:10 1/2, by John A. McKerron, 2:05 1/4, and a yearling filly by Todd, 2:14 3/4, not yet named.

In a small way many breeders of trotting horses have followed the plan which Mr. Madden purposes to pursue at Hamburg Place, sticking to one or two great producing mares and their descendants, and among these breeders who have some of the most successful ones of which there is any record, P. P. Parrish, of Midway, Ky., who bred Mamie and all her daughters, as well as most of her granddaughters, is a notable example. With a little stud embracing only this family he has raised more fast trotters and pacers than some men who have kept one hundred brood mares and expended $1,000,000 in breeding and developing their offspring. Old time horsemen recall the rise of Timothy Anglin, a Lexington dairyman, to independent wealth through the sale and development of descendants of Betty Brown, the daughter of Mambino Patchen that now figures in the records as the dam of three trotters and the granddam of almost one hundred more. From Alma Mater, another daughter of Mambino Patchen, and her descendants Dr. A. S. Talbot, of Lexington, also realized an independent fortune and the same thing was true of Bryan Hurst of Lexington, owner of Belle Patchen, 2:20 1/2 (the dam of Baroa Wilkes, 2:18) and of Joseph (Caira Simpson of California, owner of Columbine (dam of Antee, 2:16 1/2); E. W. Conover of Middletown, N. J., who owned Emeline (dam of Adele Gould, 2:19); John Stont of Midway, Ky., who owned Nettie Time (dam of Temple Bar, 2:17 3/4) and scores of other small breeders that might be named.

John Day, of the Royal Field Artillery, stationed at Jhansi, India, has won a prize offered by Lord Kitchener to non-commissioned officers and men for a painting. The subject was "A Scene near Maldon, Essex."

The management of the Palace Theatre, London, are sinking an artesian well 400 feet deep beneath the building so as to secure an independent water supply. It is estimated that this will result in a saving of £250 annually.

"TAD" JONES.

Syracuse, N. Y., Sept. 20.—"Tad" Jones, the famous Yale foot ball and base ball star, will coach the Syracuse Indians this fall. Jones is here and has commenced preliminary work. He will be assisted by Bill Horr, the famous Syracuse gridiron hero and all round athlete, for a short time. Later, Horr will go to Evansville, Ill., to coach the Northwestern eleven.

Maconda, b. m. by Red Wing (Albia) 3 3 3
Vasten, b. g. (Stahl) 2 2 2
Eraline Patchen, b. m. 4 6 4
Flora Goffe, ch. m. 4 6 4
(Wilson) 4 6 4
The Cannon, b. g. 6 4 4
(Rh