ACUTE NERVOUS EXHAUSTION

All Treatments Proved Useless Until He Tried "FRUIT-A-TIVES".

MR. JAS. S. DELGATY.

R.R. No. 4, Gilbert Plains, Man. "In the year 1910, I had Nervous Prostration in its worst form; I was reduced in weight from 170 pounds to 115 pounds.

The doctors had no hope of my recovery, and every medicine I tried proved useless until a friend induced me to take "Fruit-a-tives".

I began to mend almost at once; and after using this fruit medicine for 3 or 4 months, I was back to my normal state of health.

I never had such good health for twenty years as I have enjoyed the past six years. We are never without a box of "Fruit-a-tives" in the house".

JAS. S. DELGATY.

50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size 25c. At all dealers or sent postpaid on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

PIG PASTURES

The cost of the production of pork can be materially reduced by the use of pastures. Under ordinary conditions where a pig is fed on grain alone, it takes careful feeding and a very thrifty kind of pig to make 100 pounds gain from 500 pounds of grain, and more frequently 600 to 700 pounds of grain are consumed. Experiments with pasture and self feeders at Brandon Experimental Farm have shown that it is possible to make good gains at the rate of 300 to 400 pounds of grain to the 100 pounds of pork with the addition of pasture. Pasture cannot be used satisfactorily to replace grain, but it may very profitably reduce the grain consumption by one-third. As the pasture can be grown very cheaply and the pigs do the harvesting themselves, the cost of producing a pound of pork may be reduced 20-25 per cent. This may mean the difference between profit and loss.

There are a considerable number of crops that may be used for pig pasture. The ordinary grain crops such as wheat, oats, barley and rye are quite suitable. Sown in the spring, these crops are ready for pasturing at the time that spring pigs born in March and April are old enough to use pasture to advantage. Spring rye is the first of these crops to be ready to use. The pigs eat it well and produce good gains on it. However, it soon passes the most palatable stage and becomes more woody as it shoots into head. Oats and barley are about a week later than rye in reaching the proper stage for harvesting but are relished rather more by the pigs and continue in a suitable condition for pasturing for a longer time. Wheat also produces good pasture but is no better than other grains and the seed is more expensive.

For later summer and fall pasture, there is nothing better than rape. Sown in early spring it is ready for pasture about the middle of July, or, if sown later, it reaches pasturing stage in about six weeks from the date of sowing. Pigs like it very well; it produces a large amount of feed and stands pasturing well. It is one of the best plants for hog pasture.

Another good fall pasture is rye. If sown in midsummer it is ready to pasture in a month from the date of sowing. It produces a good grade of pasture until severe frosts come and does not head out in the fall.

Perennial crops may also be used as pig pasture. Alfalfa will produce more pasture per acre probably than any other pasture crop. Pigs do very well on it, and produce economical gains. However, it costs more to start with alfalfa as the land must be prepared two years ahead and sown one year ahead of the time it is to be used. Also, its greatest growth is in May and June when on the average farm there are few pigs to use pasture as the spring litters are too small, and very few fall pigs are raised. The second crop of alfalfa comes in well for later summer pasture for spring pigs. Pigs root out alfalfa and soon destroy it if allowed to. It is advisable to put rings in their noses when they are pastured on alfalfa.

The ordinary grasses such as brome and timothy make first class pig pasture in the spring months. But, as in the case of alfalfa, there are usually not many pigs to use pasture at that time. In midsummer and fall when pigs need pasture most, the grass pasture is often dry and harsh and not so suitable for pigs. Consequently, better results are usually obtained from the annual crops first described.

Pastured pigs should be confined to pens for a few weeks at the last before shipping to market. While on pasture, they take a great deal of exercise, especially if of the more active breeds, and as

DISTRICT INSTITUTE MEETING

The annual district convention of the Women's Institute was held in Almonte on Wednesday, June 25th, with a splendid number of representatives from the different branches of North Lanark.

The first session opened at 10:30 a.m. In the absence of the District President, Mrs. Croft, Middleville, Mrs. Dummert, of Carleton Place, presided.

The address of welcome was given by Mrs. Chisholm, Almonte, and responded to by Mrs. Miller, Pakenham. Seven branches of the Institute also a "Joney Canuck" society reported all having done splendid work. After this part of the business the meeting adjourned, when a dainty luncheon was served in the Council Chamber, by the Ladies of the Almonte branch.

The second session opened at 1:30 p.m. The election of officers took place which resulted as follows: President—Mrs. H. W. Dummert, Carleton Place.

1st Vice President—Mrs. Chisholm, Almonte.

2nd Vice President—Mrs. McIlraith, Hopetown.

Secretary—Mrs. Hayes, Ramsay.

Directors—Mrs. Steele, Almonte; Mrs. A. Neilson, Carleton Place; Mrs. Miller, Pakenham.

Mrs. A. W. Bell gave an interesting account of the convention held at Toronto. Mrs. Reid, the Government representative gave a most interesting talk on "Reconstruction" at the present time; a paper on School Nursing was presented by Miss McCormick, Superintendent of Rosamond Memorial Hospital, and a very interesting address on "Civic Life," by Mrs. Miller, Almonte.

A vote of thanks was given to Almonte for their kind hospitality; also to the officers and members who helped in anyway to promote the good work. The next annual meeting is to be held at Cedar Hill.

The session closed by singing the National Anthem.

A Wet Volcano

William Jennings Bryan said at a "bone dry" celebration in Washington: "Drink is the cause of poverty and slums. Drink, in some slums, impregnates the very air of childhood."

"A school teacher said in a puzzled voice to a slum urchin:

"Why do you say that you would like to live in a volcano? Define a volcano, child."

"A volcano," piped the kid, "is a mountain overflowin' wid lager."

a result grow well and make good frames with plenty of lean meat but may not put on enough fat. By shutting them up for about three weeks at the last, they make amazing gains in weight, thus increasing the profit, and get into a more finished condition for market. Pigs of the more sluggish breeds may be finished on pasture.

W. C. McKILLICAN,

Superintendent Experimental Farm, Brandon, Man.

Spring Fever—What Is It?

THREE o'clock in the afternoon—and absolutely no "pep." You call it spring fever, but is it?

When you are constipated waste matter remains in the intestines, decays, forms poisons which are absorbed into your blood and carried by it to every cell in your body. When your cells are thus poisoned, of course you have no "pep."

Pills, salts, mineral waters, castor oil, etc., merely force the bowels to act, and make constipation and self-poisoning a habit. Nujol is entirely different from drugs as it does not force or irritate the bowels.

Nujol prevents stagnation by softening the food waste and encouraging the intestinal muscles to act naturally, thus removing the cause of constipation and self-poisoning. It is absolutely harmless and pleasant to take.

Nujol helps Nature establish easy, thorough bowel evacuation at regular intervals—the healthiest habit in the world. Get a bottle of Nujol from your druggist today and watch your "pep" come back.

Warning: Nujol is sold in sealed bottles bearing the Nujol Trade Mark. All druggists. Insist on Nujol. You may suffer from substitutes.

Changed Places

"Don't be so long winded in your reports as you have been in the past," said the manager of The Wild West railway to his overseer. "Just report the condition of the track as ye find it, and don't put in a lot of needless words that ain't to the point. Write a business letter, not a love-letter."

A few days later the railway line was badly flooded, and the overseer wrote his report to the manager in one line.

"Sir—Where the railway was the river is—Yours faithfully,—Blighty (London).

Business and Pleasure

"Did you have a good time at the dance last night?"

"Kinda."

"Who was that handsome chap I saw you with after the intermission?"

"He is a stranger in town."

"Dashing, isn't he?"

"Nerviest gink I ever seen."

"I notice he had his arm rather tightly about you."

"I didn't mind that so much."

"What then?"

"Do you know why he had me clutched that way?"

"No."

"Well, would you believe it, he had me that way so I couldn't escape, and all the time we were dancing he was trying to sell me some life insurance."

Another "Dry" Vote

"A burnt child dreads the fire," announced the teacher during the lesson in proverbs. "Now, give me a sentence different in wording but meaning the same thing."

A grimy hand shot up from the back of the class.

"Please, teacher," came a small voice. "A washed child dreads the water."—Blighty (London.)

Equals

He—"Your cousin refused to recognize me at the Jaza last night; thinks I'm not his equal, I suppose."

She—"Ridiculous! Of course you are; why he's nothing but a conceited idiot."—Blighty (London.)

Rev. Canon O'Meara, parish priest of St. Gabriel's Church, Montreal, was found dead in bed from heart failure, said to be caused by shock over his brother's drowning the day before.

"A school teacher said in a puzzled voice to a slum urchin:

"Why do you say that you would like to live in a volcano? Define a volcano, child."

"A volcano," piped the kid, "is a mountain overflowin' wid lager."

PROTECTION FROM GERMS!

One of the greatest dangers to health comes from food contaminated by disease-breeding germs. Is your milk supply safe from the filthy house-fly? With a temperature as low as 36 degrees in the Barnet, germs cannot multiply. Besides, the Barnet perfected syphon-system means continuous circulation of pure, sweet, dry air, protecting the foods from the effects of germ-breeding moisture.
