

McINNES, His Honour Thomas Robert, M.D., Lt.-Gov. of B. C., is the 4th s. of the late John McInnes, a native of Inverness, Scot., by his wife, Mary, 3rd dau. of Capt. Edward Hamilton, Paisley, Scot. B. at Lake Ainslie, N.S., Nov. 5, 1840, he was ed. at the Provl. Normal Sch., Truro, and studied Med. at Harvard Univ., and at Rush Med. Coll., Chicago, graduating M.D., 1869. In the same year he was admitted a mem. of the Coll. of P. and S., Ont. He practised for some yrs. at Dresden, Ont., of which town he was elected reeve, 1874. He was likewise a coroner for the Co. Kent. Removing to New Westminster, 1874, he at once entered into a large and lucrative practice, and was elected mayor of the city, 1876-78. He was for 5 yrs. physician and surg. to the Royal Columbia Hospital, and med. supdt. of the B. C. Insane Asylum. He sat for New Westminster, in the Ho. of Commons, from Mch., 1878 until Dec. 24, 1881, when he was called to the Senate by the Marquis of Lorne. He was elected to the Commons twice as an Ind. in politics, but for the past 14 yrs. acted generally with the Lib. party. In Nov., 1897, he was apptd. Lt.-Gov. of B. C. As a public man he favoured the establishment of a Dom. mint; the political disenfranchisement of the civil service; and compulsory voting. He was the first mem. of either the Senate or the Commons to advocate on the public platform unrestricted reciprocity with the U. S. He is a mem. of the Presb. Ch.; and m. Oct., 1865, the relict of the late Geo. M. Webster, Dresden. Their s., W. W. B. McInnes, was elected to the Ho. of Commons, in the Lib. interest, for Vancouver Electoral Dist., at the Dom. g. e. 1896, and moved the address in reply to the Speech from the Throne at the opening of the 8th Parlt.—Government House, Victoria, B.C.

McINNIS, John Kenneth, journalist, is the s. of John McInnis, a native of Scot., by Isabel Ross, his wife, and was b. at Strathalbyn, P.E.I., Apl. 29, 1854. Ed. at Prince of Wales Coll., and at Central Acad., Charlottetown, he became licensed as a public sch. teacher, 1871. Removing to Man., 1881, after 3 yrs. of pioneer work he resumed teaching. In 1891 he assumed the editorship of the Regina Standard, of which he is now sole prop. He entered the Regina City Council, Jan., 1896, and was the Patron candidate for West Assiniboia at the Dom. g. e. 1896, being defeated by the casting vote of the Returning Offr. Up to 1893, he gave the Con. party an Ind. support; since that time he has been allied with the Patron movement, and is now Presdt. of the Patrons of Industry, N.W.T. He favours single tax, govt. ownership of rys., telegraphs, etc., national unsectarian schs., and complete separation of Ch. and State. He is opposed to all that tends to foster special privileges to the wealthy. In religion, a Meth.; he m. Mch., 1874, Miss Jane Carr, Rustico, P.E.I.—Regina, N. W. T.

McINTOSH, Hugh Fraser, is the s. of Danl. McIntosh, a native of Nairn, Scot., and was b. in Hamilton, Ont., May 11, 1862. Ed. at the public and High schs., Guelph, he has throughout been engaged in commercial undertakings. At present and for some time past he has held the office of Secy.-Treas. of the Univ. Knitting Machine Co. Since entering the R. C. Ch., 1883, Mr. McI. has shown much interest in Can. ch. history; more particularly in that portion of it relating to the growth of the R. C. Ch. in western Can. He was for 2 yrs. ed. of the Cath. Weekly Review. In 1888 he published a short life of Father Louis della Vagna, a Capuchin Friar, who died in Toronto, 1857; and, later, he contributed to the memorial volume, published on the occasion of the Golden Jubilee of the Diocese of Toronto, lives of the late Bishops Macdonell (Kingston) and Power (Kingston). He writes