

A head short

Don Mills goalkeeper Steve O'Brien beats Mississauga United attacker to the ball in a Metro Interdistrict Peewee Soccer League game last week at Fleetwood Park. United beat Don Mills the rest of the time though, in winning the game by a 3-1 score.

Revenge still sweet for United teams

Revenge is just as sweet turned in a strong game a year later. for the home side.

Two Mississauga United teams learned that last week in Metro Interdistrict Soccer League

United peewees gained revenge for a loss in last year's Ontario Cup final by dumping Don Mills 3-1. United minor bantams, knocked out of Ontario Cup play by St. Andrews last year, whipped St. Andrews 4-0 last week.

"We've got about six players back from last pretty happy about it. Mills was shocked to see us. They didn't realize Mississauga was Dixie." Don Mills learned quickly as Simon Mahdessian scored two goals and United travels to St.

Andrews tonight. Howard Manning, Carlo Bosco, Chris Davies and Fred Thompson spoiled things for defending Canadian champions St. Andrews. Don Ferguson turned back all shots he faced for the shutout.

Anthony Tanti, a new addition to the United team, filled the sweeper position admirably and MINOR PEEWEE

Mississauga United Ferrin Falcons' coach Bruno Puzzer toyed briefly with the thought of refusing to play a scheduled match with Scarborough United last week, but changed his mind. He regretted the decision as Falcons suffered a 3-0 loss. United arrived for the game at Highview Park, only to find that the pitch had not been lined. "It was a big disappointyear's Dixie team," said ment because we're in a peewee coach Bern league that is supposed to Hugglestone. "They were be showing others that pretty happy about it. we're the best," said "But I'll tell you Don Puzzer. "But the referee talked to both goaltenders before the game and said he'd give them the benefit of the doubt if they got near the 18-foot line. According to Puzzer, the referee backed down on his word when he called United goaltender Brad Walcott in violation of the rule and awarded Scarborough a goal, the first of the game. It came minutes after Walcott stopped a penalty shot.

'It's tough to play when the other team has 12 players and one of them is the referee." said Puzzer United could not recover and Scarborough added two second half
