

Renegades say one more time

Orillia came to town last Sunday. If you're a Junior C Mississauga Renegade fan, that statement automatically indicates another notch in the loss column. As it turned out, last Sunday proved no different. But the Renegades are getting closer.

Orillia took home a 17-15 win after surviving several Renegade threats at Malton Arena. "All we need is one more time, then we'll take them," said manager Bruce Butler.

Darryl Flynn led the Renegades with three goals, followed by Grant Haddy and Paul Coffey with a pair each. Dennis Holly, Scott Sands, Joe Perrin, Keith McKenzie, Keith Burton, Jim Roberts, Sonny Sampson and Gary Beck had singles.

Orillia outshot the Renegades 71-49.

Keith Burton scored five times Thursday night in Guelph as Mississauga walked away with a 22-9 win. Holley, Rick Flint and Beck had hat tricks.

Perrin and Sands scored twice each and singles went to Haddy, Coffey, Flynn and Steve Kane. Renegades host Rexdale Sunday night.

Upsets and more upsets

On the merits of an Ontario sixth-place ranking amongst girls under 14, Joanne Rak of Ontario Racquet Club was the first seed in the girls' 16 draw of the Etobicoke Junior Open last week.

Club-mate Lisa Grittani, who wasn't ranked last year and wasn't seeded in the tournament, wasn't impressed and dumped Rak 7-5, 6-3 in the quarter-finals.

Which indicates the state of tennis in Mississauga.

Provincially-ranked players in Mississauga can't even take it for granted they will get past players from their own clubs.

Eight Mississauga-based players made it to the semi-finals of the massive tournament. Peter Straub and Elaine Phillips of the Ontario Racquet Club won their divisions.

Phillips defeated Liz McDougall of Ottawa 6-0, 6-3. McDougall had taken care of Grittani in the semis 6-4, 6-4.

Straub of Cobblestone Courts who is only 14 defeated Shawn Craig 6-1, 6-3 to claim the boys' 18 title.

Boys' 14 first seed Chris Pridham of Cobblestone Courts was upset in the semi-finals by eventual winner Ritchie Lany 6-3, 6-3.

Ontario Racquet Club's nationally ranked 12-year-old John Tokos made it to the boys' 16 semi-finals before losing to Brent Saigeon 6-2, 6-0.

Possibly another route?

Point Edward Pacers' Drew Heighway has just completed an abrupt message to Mississauga Realtors' Kim Bishop in Friday's Junior B lacrosse game. Realtors could not penetrate the Pacers' defence and lost 18-12.

Builders boat still rocks

By TOM MALONEY
Times Staff Writer
After Wednesday night's miserable 21-11 loss to Rexdale Warriors, substitute Builders coach Rob Roy said the players would have to get their desire back to prevent the season from being a total disaster. Friday the Builders defeated lowly Brampton 13-7 and returned Sunday to take Rexdale 20-17.

But don't let that fool you. Never the most stable of Junior A lacrosse teams, the Builders still aren't happy.

Coach Ray Shipway is angry because of the lack of volunteers in the organization. He claims the onus is on general manager Jim Halliday and himself to do almost everything, including getting the sweaters cleaned.

Reliable sources claim that some players are angry about the volume of criticism, and lack of praise from Shipway.

Halliday blames a lack of cooperation from the Junior B Realtors and Junior C Renegades for the shortage of players on the Builders squad.

Junior B coach Duncan Croft and C coach Rob Roy say it is not their fault players do not want to move up to the Builders.

And so it goes. Stu Aird and Mike McMillan each had four goals and five assists in Sunday's victory over Rexdale, which moved the Builders to within two points of the fourth place Warriors, with two games in hand. Rexdale coach Morley Kells has resigned from that team in disgust.

Pat Schnur had two goals and four assists and Bob McGinn scored a goal to go along with six assists. Randy Dupre had three goals, Steve Shaw scored twice and singles went to Steve Maddick, Gil Dupre and Jeff Venter.

Aird led scorers against Brampton with two goals and three assists. Schnur had a hat trick, McGinn, McMillan and Randy Dupre had a pair each and singles went to Darryl Flynn and Venter.

Schnur led Wednesday's scoring with three goals. Dupre and Aird had two each with singles to Venter, McMillan and Beck Hoffland.

Note... Goaltender Tony Ramsey has reportedly joined the Builders for the remainder of the season.

Boot on the run

John Caldiera saves the money on tees.

The Crusaders lead the league with a 4-0 record.

The Mississauga Crusader kicked a 45 drop-kick goal in a losing cause to Brantford. The Crusader's third eleven lost 16-13 last week.

A penalty goal by Stu Cox was all that was needed to give Mississauga Crusaders first team a 3-0 victory in Ontario Senior B rugby action.

Argo cheerleaders have competition

By TOM MALONEY
Times Staff Writer

Not even the new corps of cheerleaders could bring victory to the Mississauga Junior B Realtors Friday night.

"We thought if we came out dressed like this maybe the other team would pay more attention to us than the game," said cheerleader captain Wendy Richards, dressed in a short skirt and low cut blouse. "But it didn't work tonight."

Whether the five cheerleaders had any influence, the Realtors and Point Edward treated fans for two of the finest periods of junior lacrosse this season.

The Realtors tied Point Edward 10-10 in the second period but a mental error opened the way for three quick goals.

The Pacers moved into a shell of impenetrable armor in the third period to preserve an 18-12 victory and remain undefeated. Realtors hold second place with three losses, followed by Six Nations and SELA.

The Pacers Mike Dalton intercepted a Realtors clearing pass for the third time in the second period and returned the ball quickly to teammate John Dark, who made no mistake in putting the 11th goal behind surprised goaltender Steve Young. The Realtors did not recover. "We're supposed to be running out with the ball from our own end," moaned Realtors coach Duncan Croft. "That is too hard a pass to make, but it seems like we try to do it all the time."

Steve Maddick and Rick Richards combined on a give-and-go goal that Croft termed "playoff style. We haven't been doing that too often lately."

Minutes earlier, Ron Flint scored after faking to a teammate and moving around a defenceman. Earlier, he had missed two chances from close range.

"We still have some problems but there was some good play out there tonight," said Croft.

As for the cheerleaders, the group expects to expand from five to 10 girls and increase the variety of their cheers. In the meantime Realtors fans will hear such boosters as:

Sitting in the grandstand
Beating on a tin can
Who can? We can.
Nobody else can.
Fight! Fight!

The Realtors host Niagara Friday at 8 p.m. at Clarkson Arena. The cheerleaders will be there.

Striders flower

Mississauga Strider athletes finished first in four events at the Brampton Flower Festival track and field meet last weekend.

Todd Stansbury ran a personal best 10.8 winning the junior 100 metres.

Chris Brandy topped the midget 100 field with an 11.6. Ian James won the midget long jump with a leap of 5.81 metres and Brandy was second with a 5.66. Pat Watters won the midget girls javelin with a 26.88 metre throw.

Andre Metivier was second in the midget 200 with a time of 24.8, third in the 400 with a 56.9 and fifth in the long jump with a 5.22 metre jump.

Midget Mike Martin was second in the 1500 metres with a 4:40.3 time. Daryl Melnik was second in the junior long jump with a 6.29 metre jump. John Orton was second in the junior high jump with a 1.8 leap.

Rusty triggers

Brad Hurbert scored five goals as Village Building defeated Rexdale 13-7 in Malton houseleague peewee lacrosse play last week.

Dave Pollett scored four and Robert D'Amico three goals for Village. Kurt Bennett had a single.

Village also tied Rexdale 3-3 on goals by Mike

Camardo, Jamie Turner and D'Amico.

In tyke action, Chomco Electric defeated Rexdale 7-6.

Grant Moffat scored three times. Steve Csomor added two goals and singles were scored by Jason Minaci and Mark Psaila.

Soccer, you say?

Mississauga Spartans played with a one-man disadvantage during the second half of Saturday's Ontario Cup major bantam match.

To no avail. The Spartans defeated Newmarket Limberts 27-0 after building up a 9-0 first half score.

Dave McKuen led the victors with 12 goals. Tony Roselli and Pat Hinrichson scored four goals each. Steven Hill and Donny Evans scored three goals each.

Shawn Hecking earned the shutout. The Spartans play in the third round of the Ontario Cup July 8 or 9.
