newspaper, expressing the viewpoint which it does express, should be encouraged to the limit and it is possible that a subsidy of this kind could be provided through the Vote which the R. C. M. Police have and which is not subject to publication or public enquiries.

Would you please discuss this and let me know the reaction of the government to the proposal. I presume that you would have to discuss it in the first place with the Minister of Justice, who might want to discuss it, in turn, with the Commissioner of the R. C. M. Police.
