Mr. Charles R. Crane,
70 Fifth Avenue,
New York City.

Dear Mr. Crane:

It was exceedingly kind of you to send me the wire of congratulations from Halifax, which I have just received. I thank you heartily for your remembrance of me, and the good wishes which your message conveys.

I shall be happy indeed if my new position affords opportunity of service in the promotion of goodwill between our respective countries, and you may be sure that my every effort will be directed toward this all-important end.

With kind personal regards,

Believe me,

Yours very sincerely,
