

lands, and report what Indians were settled thereon, and as to the improvements made by them on their locations; and that so soon as the report was received and considered, this Department would be further informed, with regard to the issue of Patent applied for.

Nothing has since been heard from the Crown Lands Department, in the matter; and I am now writing to that Department, to be informed further, in regard thereto.

Your obedient Servant,
Mark Seymour

Deputy of the Deputy of Indian Affairs
