

83,510-3B.

Ottawa, November 26th, 1913.

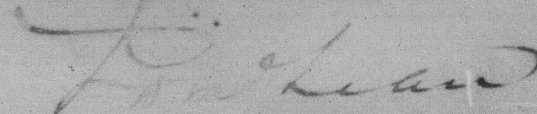

Sirs:-

With reference to letter of the 21st instant, enclosing account for grazing dues against the McEwen Company. I am now directed to inform you that it has been decided to continue these privileges at the rate of $3.00 per head until next spring.

The Indian Agent at the Elbow Reserve has been instructed to inform the local manager of the McEwen Company of this decision.

You were sent an account covering the dues for six months ending 12th proximo and the Department expects a remittance in payment thereof. For the remaining four months from the 12th December to the 12th April, 1914, the dues should be remitted here in February, next.

Your obedient servant,

Assistant Deputy and Secretary.
