

throughout the world.
 own and future generations, the well-being of mankind who are still free, it has been given to us, for our but let us, above all, be inspired by the belief that for us operation on this side of the globe is in fact in this way. knowing full well that everything which does not unite and continue to combine our efforts, in an ever widening circle, ship also the hope of the future of mankind. Let us then the call comes that universal civilization. In that pattern-in that partnership too the one and only means of obtaining one great partnership to preserve and to restore human freedom. free men throughout the world are today united in order.
 of victory, but equally to the achievement of a new world immediate prosecution of the war, and the ultimate attainment Our war aims are essential, not only to the too quickly or too largely understood. it needed to the state. For these reasons, money cannot be enemy gain prolongs the struggle. Every allied victory brings the conflict today encompasses the globe. Every